Inspired by the maritime history of Hundested, a small coastal town north of Copenhagen where some of the world's most beautiful ships were made, glass artists Backhaus- Brown have teamed up with cabinetmakers Egeværk to create a series of stunning sculptures named "Glasskibe" — Viking ships in glass and wood—for collaborative exhibitions around the world. They're bringing it to local glass gallery Vetri, where it'll be on view for all of August. 1404 First Ave., 206.667.9608, vetri-glass.com
