Aim of the SIATE project

The main purpose of the SIATE-project is to create the European Network for Entrepreneurship in Adult Education (ENTNET) with the explicit goal of strengthening and developing a coherent local, national and European approach for using entrepreneurship education as a tool for social inclusion.

To support and build the relevance of the network the project will also develop the following elements:

- National Policy Briefs addressing adult entrepreneurship education
- European recommendations policy paper
- Collection of Capacity Building materials with recommendations on the use of methods and entrepreneurial educational tools for educators

5 National learning conferences

Addressing local challenges on entrepreneurship education

Findings from the Danish conference:

- Entrepreneurial support structures follow the educational level
- Entrepreneurship can also be social entrepreneurship

Findings from the Irish conference:

- Economical perspectives – creating jobs
- Progression into self-employment are not always the most suitable option.
- "Living the language is more than learning the language".

Findings from the Italian conference:

- Financial independence is a key factor to do entrepreneurship
- Social innovation
- Entrepreneurship education is also validation of soft skills and microcredentials.
