WEDDING DECK

Love doesn't fit into a gallery,
but I'll try to get close.

INTRODUCTION

After photographing and filming more than sixty weddings, one thing became clear.

I don't believe in weddings as a checklist.
I don't believe in polite handshakes, forced traditions or piano music pretending everything felt magical.

At some point, it started to feel like repetitive production work.
And that's when I realised: if I keep doing this, it has to mean something again.

What brought the love back were a few couples who dared to do things differently.
Couples who didn't perform a wedding, but lived it. Where love wasn't staged, but present. Flowing. Loud. Messy. Honest.

That's the kind of weddings I want to film.

I work with a no-bullshit policy. I need to feel a match. Not because the work depends on it, but because trust does. I don't want to enter your world as a stranger. I want to move within it, quietly and respectfully.

My style lives somewhere between documentary and cinematic.
Real moments are captured as they happen.
At the same time, I'm deeply driven by aesthetics, rhythm and image.

I'm allergic to predictable wedding photos.
I'm drawn to intensity. To emotion that doesn't ask permission. To love that doesn't follow rules.

If you're celebrating love because it matters to you, not because it's expected of you, we'll probably understand each other.

APPROACH

I don't direct weddings.
I move within them.

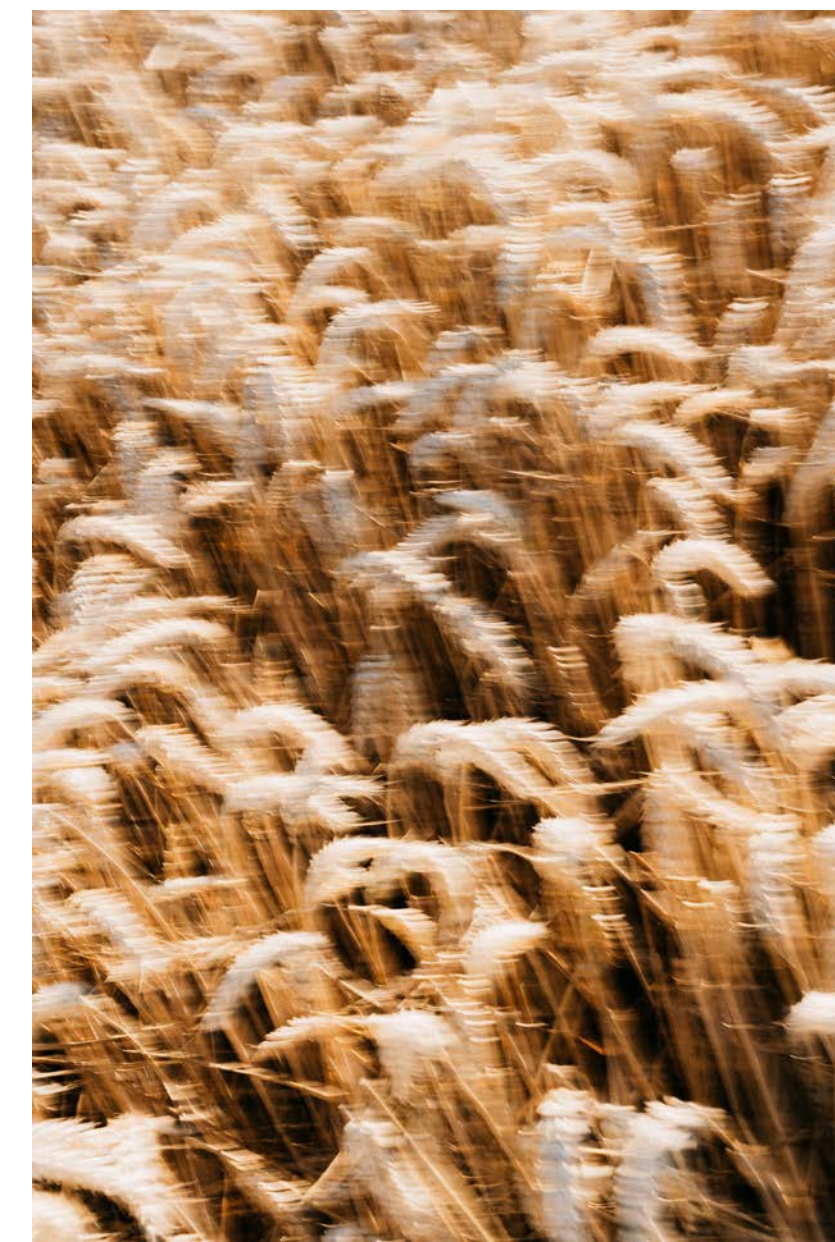

What matters to me isn't perfection,
but presence.

Some moments are loud.
Some almost invisible.
Both matter equally.

The in-between moments.
The ones you don't plan.

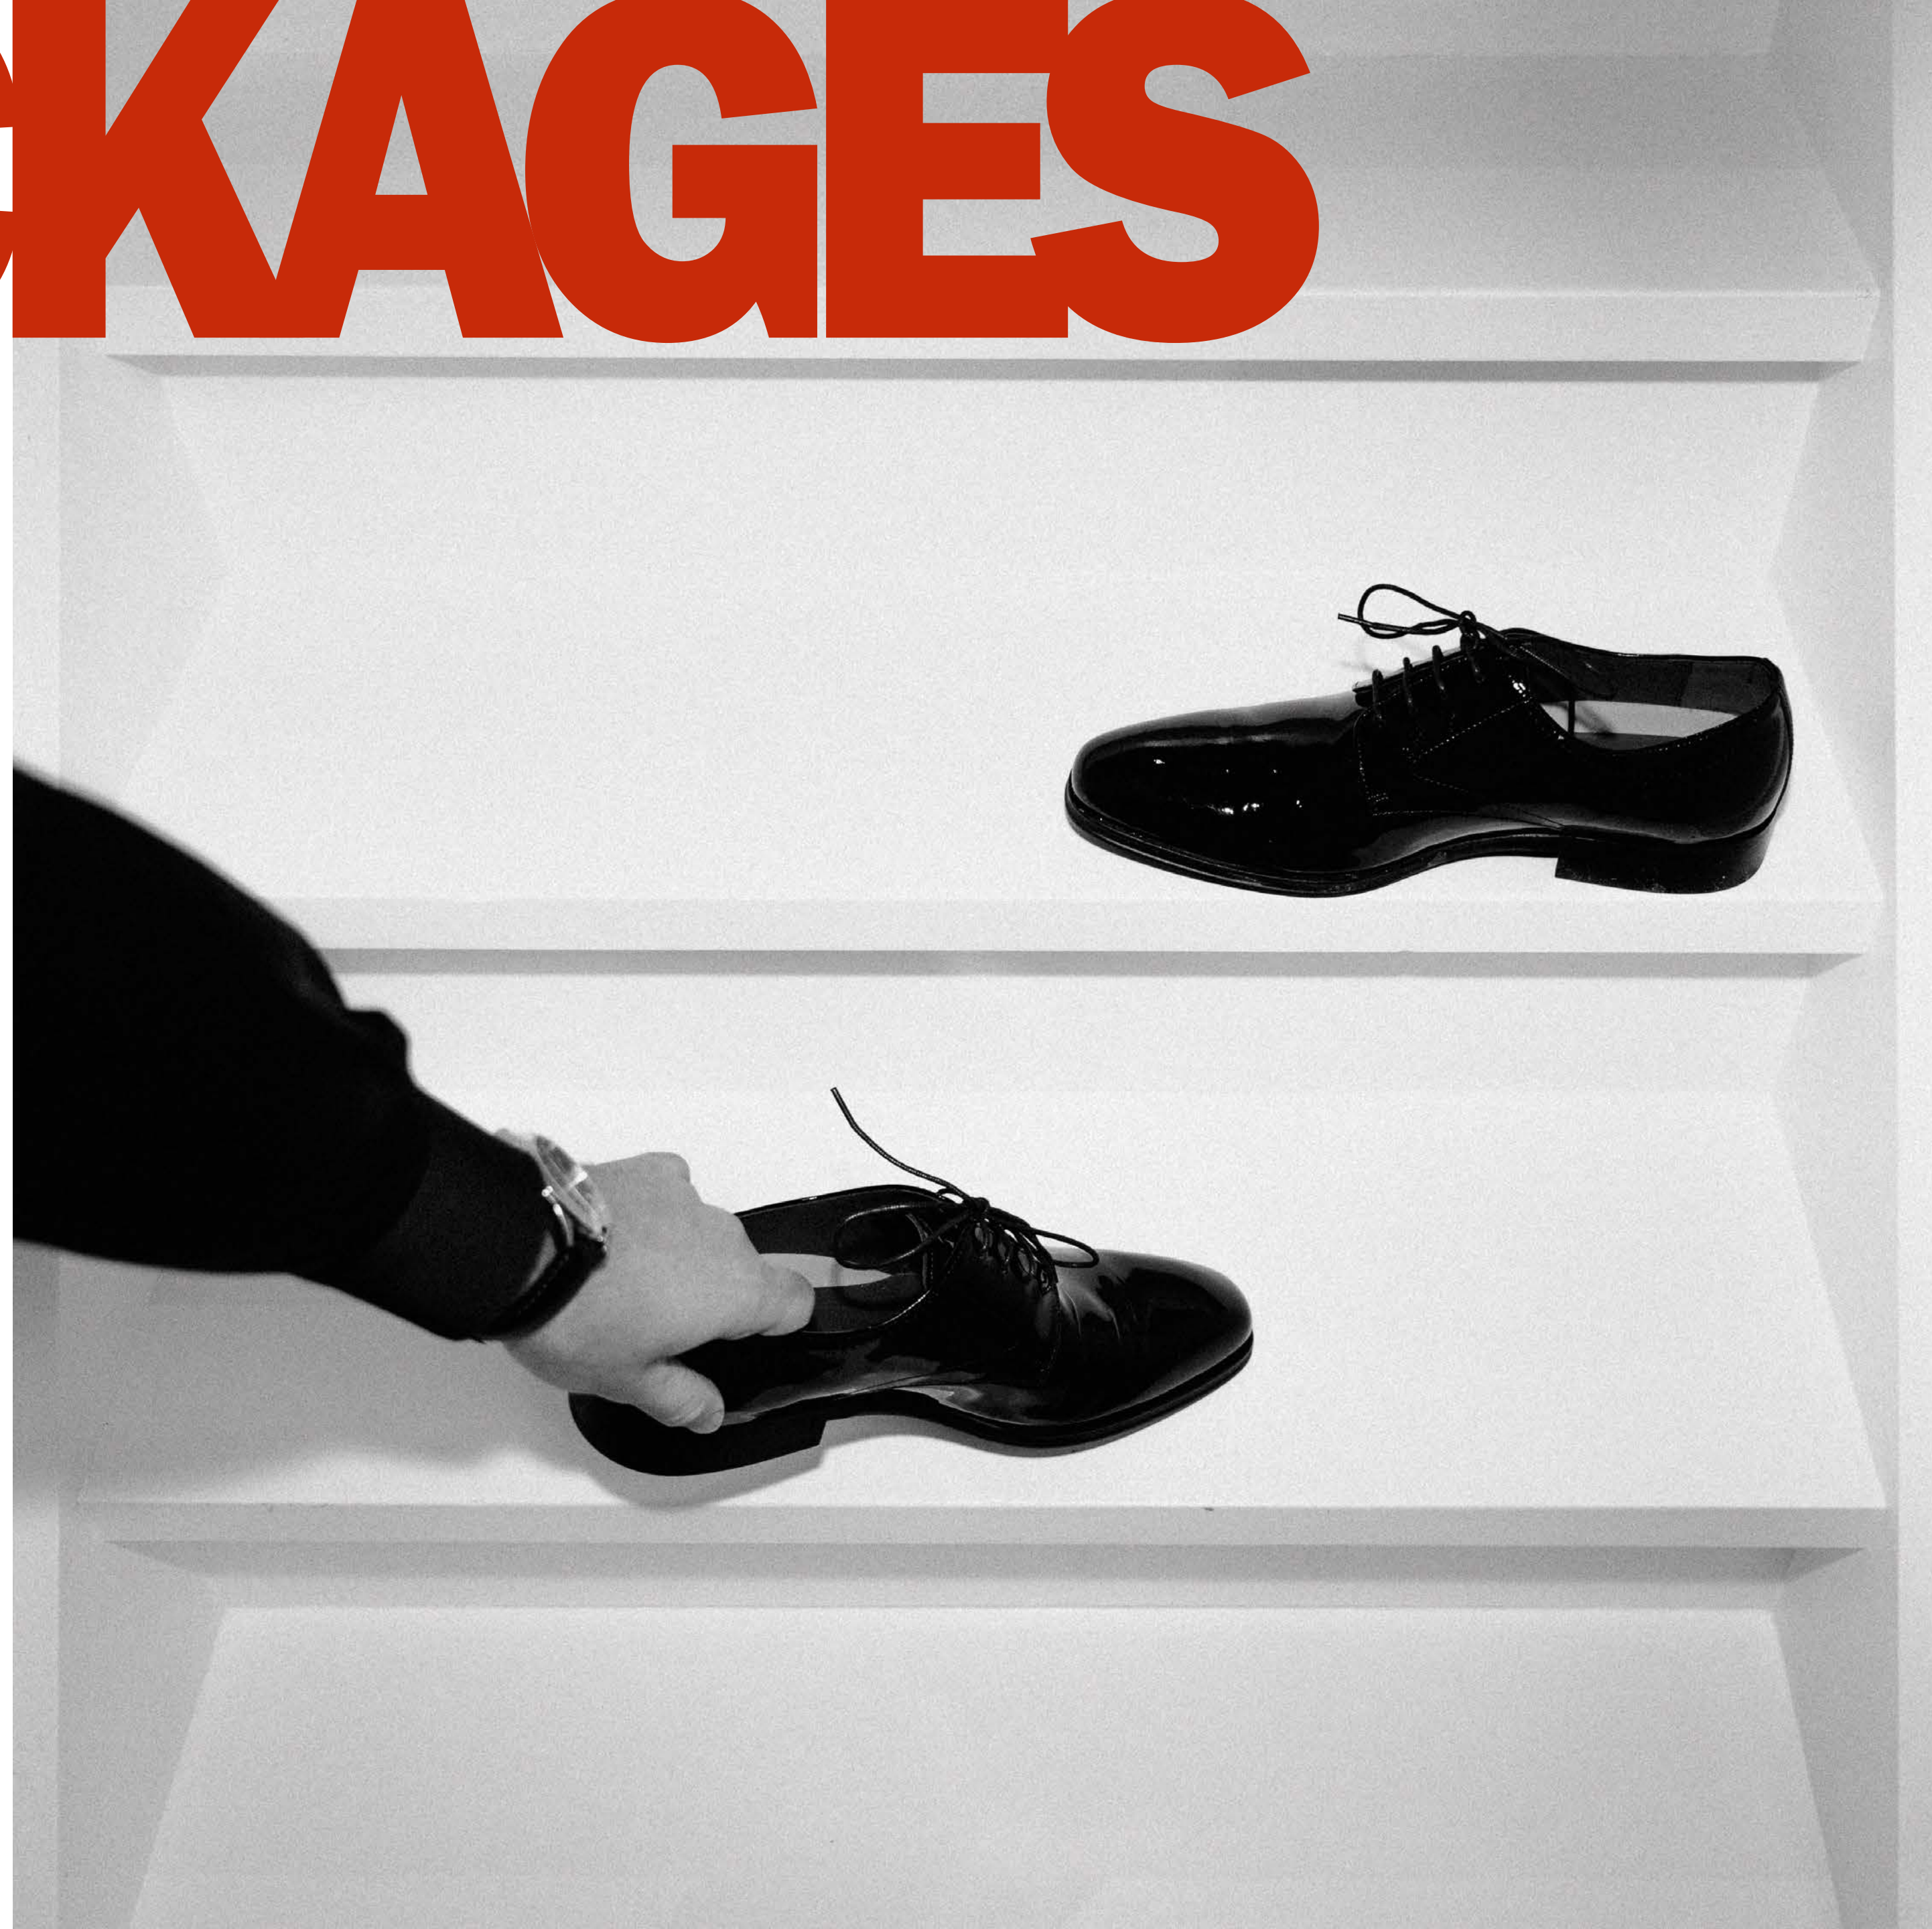

My work lives somewhere between documentary and editorial.
Unposed, but precise.
Honest, but visually strong.

I don't try to make your wedding look like something it isn't.
I capture it in a way that still feels true years from now.

FAQ

CAN WE JUST MEET INSTEAD OF READING EVERYTHING?

Absolutely. We prefer a conversation. It's the best way to feel if there's a match. Send us an email with your date, location and a few words about yourselves, and we'll take it from there.

HOW PRESENT ARE YOU ON THE DAY?

We stay close, without being intrusive. We don't interrupt moments or recreate them. Most couples tell us they forget we're there.

HOW LONG DOES DELIVERY TAKE?

Preview within 48h. The full gallery is delivered within 3 weeks.

SHOULD WE ADD A SECOND PHOTOGRAPHER?

I usually work alone, but I love working with two. It creates more space. More angles, more guest portraits, more freedom to move at the same time. The story feels fuller, more layered, more complete.

I especially recommend it for larger venues, 150+ guests, or when multiple things happen at once.

WHAT IF OUR WEDDING IS SMALL OR NOT 'SPECTACULAR'?

That doesn't matter. Connection does.

WHAT IF SOMETHING UNEXPECTED HAPPENS?

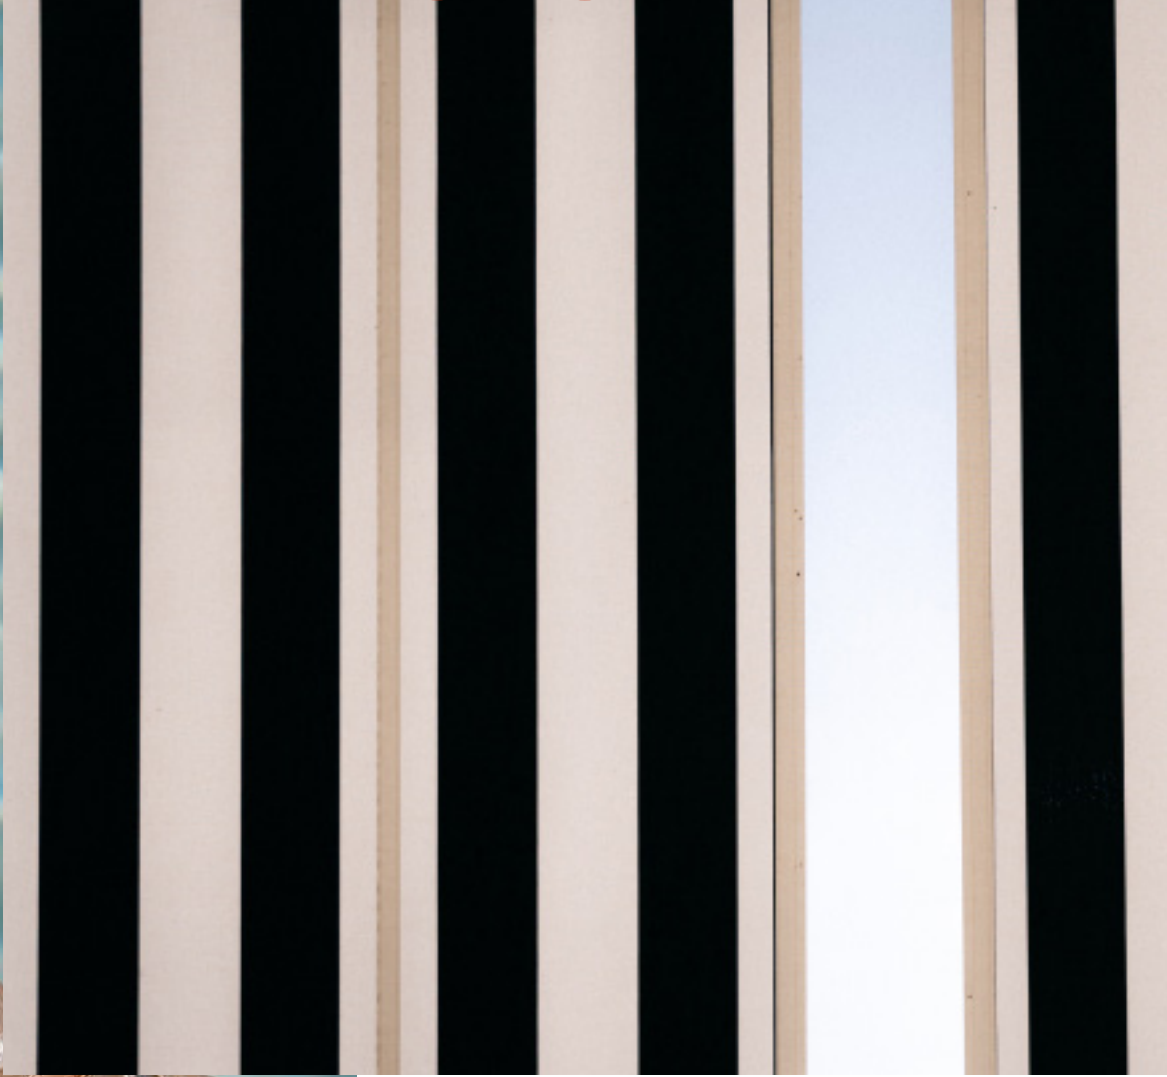

Weddings are unpredictable. We're used to adapting quietly when plans shift, timelines change or moments unfold differently than expected. That's where experience matters most.

DO YOU OFFER CUSTOM PACKAGES?

Yes. Not because everything needs to be customized, but because every couple is different. If you have a specific vision, an unconventional timeline, or a wedding that doesn't fit into a standard format, let us know. We'll shape the coverage around the day you're actually living.

COFFEE?

A collaboration starts with trust.
And trust starts with a conversation.

If our approach resonates with you, let's meet.
No pressure. No checklist.
Just a conversation to see if it feels right.

Send us an email with your date, location and a few lines about yourselves.
We'll take it from there.
