

Biography

Christopher Fossto is a guitarist, conductor and composer/producer from Sweden. He graduated 2011 from Lund University and the Academy of Music in Malmö and has since then spent time touring and recording with a wide diversity of ensembles and bands – both in Sweden and in Europe. Christopher is also the head conductor of Staffanstorps Musikkår – a well established Wind Orchestra in the southern parts of Sweden.

Right now you can hear him performing as a solo guitarist, in the guitar/saxophone Duo Fossto/Szillágy (Swe/Hu) and as a part of the live acts of both Åsa Leijon and Sabina Chantoura.