

PRIFEVIP MEMBER POLICIES AND GUIDELINES

As an Independent Business Owner (IBO) and Registered Member of Prife International;

1. I agree that I have read, understood and will abide by all the Policies and Guidelines stated in and by the back office of Prife International (or, “company”), as amended or introduced from time to time.
2. I agree that I will not sell nor promote Prife products at a lower price than the Retail Price instated by the company and communicated to me from time to time.
3. I agree that I will strictly follow the Marketing/Compensation Plan set forth by the company when I introduce and explain the business side of the Business Opportunity Presentation.
4. I agree that I will not engage in poaching activities, i.e. I will not recruit/ invite someone who is or was already invited by a different member of the company to join the company/business.
5. I agree that I will not position Prife as an investment opportunity that only involves income based on money invested rather than the business model of Prife as a Multi-Level Marketing company.
6. I agree that I will not position the company as a medical device manufacturer and distribution company, nor the company’s products as medical devices which could substitute conventional medical procedures.
7. I agree that I will not make false claims as being directly connected to Prife HQ and/or any representations of fast ranking up and faster income generation if a prospect joins my group. This includes claims made in Social Media advertising and publication representing Prife.
8. I agree that I will not create any type of promotion, discounts or any sales programs that are not expressly authorized or sanctioned by Prife in writing.
9. I agree that I will not position Prife as a partner of any existing company or organization without prior written approval of the company.
10. I agree that if any of the agreed upon stipulations are violated, Prife reserves the right to suspend my membership account indefinitely until the issue/s is/are resolved failing which, my membership account may be liable for termination.
