

GLOWFLARE HORROR FILM FESTIVAL

We are thrilled to announce that the official selection for the Glowflare Horror Film Festival has been finalised, and all selected filmmakers have now been notified. We'll be sharing more publicly tomorrow, we are so excited to highlight the extraordinary talent showcased in both short and feature-length films this year.

The level of creativity, craft, and passion across submissions has been truly remarkable. Our programming team faced an incredibly difficult task in making the final selections, and we deeply appreciate your patience and understanding throughout this process.

Every film was reviewed with the care and consideration its deserved. While we are unable to include all the outstanding projects submitted, please know that these decisions were not made lightly. We are honoured to have had the opportunity to experience your work.

To all who submitted to the Glowflare Horror Film Festival, thank you. We are inspired by your storytelling and dedication to the genre. We wish you the very best with your creative journey, and we hope to have the opportunity to see more of your work in the future.

With sincere gratitude,
Festival Team
