

MEDIA GUIDELINES

www.glowflareshortfestival.com

GLOWFLARE
SHORT
FILM FESTIVAL

The festival press kit includes materials intended for media and promotional use.

Usage Rights and Permissions

By accessing and using this content, you agree to comply with the following guidelines.

Authorised Use

Media outlets, journalists, and festival partners are granted a non-exclusive, non-transferable licence to use the materials provided in this press kit solely for editorial coverage and promotion of the Glowflare Short Film Festival. Permissible uses include:

- Photos and Logos: Festival images, film stills, and logos may be used in print, online, or broadcast media to promote the Glowflare Short Film Festival.
- Press Releases: Information provided in press releases may be quoted or paraphrased for articles or media coverage related to the festival.

Copyright and Attribution

All materials remain the property of Glowflare Short Film Festival or their respective creators. When using images or video clips, please include the following credit where applicable: "Image courtesy of Glowflare Short Film Festival."

Modification Restrictions

Logos may not be altered, cropped, or modified in any way. Minor adjustments to images (such as resizing for layout purposes) are allowed, provided the quality and original context of the image are preserved.

Embargo Information

Embargoes will be outlined directly within individual press releases where applicable. Media outlets are kindly requested to observe any embargo details included, ensuring a coordinated release of festival announcements.

Disclaimer

All content provided in this press kit is offered by the Glowflare Short Film Festival for the purpose of promoting the festival. Unauthorised replication, distribution, or use outside of permitted editorial or promotional contexts is strictly prohibited.

For any further information or questions about these guidelines, please contact:

Email: press@glowflareshortfestival.com