1. Introduction

DEFIS.A2 and NARC are committed to protect your personal data and to respect your privacy. DEFIS.A2 collects and further processes personal data pursuant to Regulation \(EU\) 2018/1725 of the European Parliament and of the Council on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data by the Union institutions, bodies, offices and agencies and on the free movement of such data.

NARC collects and further processes personal data pursuant to the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) (EU) 2016/679 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data.

This privacy statement explains the reason for the processing of your personal data in the context of a conference organised jointly by DEFIS.A2 and NARC. It explains the way we collect, handle and ensure protection of all personal data provided, how that information is used and what rights you have in relation to your personal data. It also specifies the contact details of the responsible Data Controller with whom you may exercise your rights, the Data Protection Officer and the European Data Protection Supervisor.

The information related to the processing of personal data linked to European Conference Towards a greener Defence: the challenge of sustainable development for European Defence industries, jointly organised by DEFIS.A2 and NARC, is presented below.

2. Why and how do we process your personal data?

Purpose of the processing operation: as joint data controllers DG DEFIS.A2 and NARC collect and further process your personal data to provide you with information about the specific event (before, during and after) and to process your application for participation in that event.

Your personal data will not be used for any automated decision-making including profiling.

Live web-streaming and audio-visual recording at the meeting or event of the speakers, organisers and participants, as well as photographs of the speakers and panoramic photographs of participants and organisers may be taken and published at www.greener-defence-conference2023.eu.

The audience or non-speaker participants are not photographed individually or in groups. They may however appear on panoramic photographs of the whole event/audience.

Please note that this meeting or event may be held using a third party videoconference IT service, which processes personal data. Please read section 7 below for more information.

Names of speakers may be published at www.greener-defence-conference2023.eu.

Participants and speakers that do not wish to be part of the above web-streaming and recording/publishing activities have the possibility to object to processing, by sending an e-mail to dpo@nouvelle-aquitaine.fr by sitting in the back row. The back row will not be photographed if the organiser receives an e-mail prior to the conference or gets notified by a participant requesting not to be a part of the above publishing activities. In case the conference is held online, using a third part IT service which processes personal data, please read heading 7 below for more information.

For some sessions, remote participants may be able to intervene. In these cases, during registration, participants can indicate their preference to opt-in or opt-out from the above recording activities. In case, however, a participant decides to intervene by enabling his/her audio and/or video during the meeting he/she will be recorded. Participants may also send an e-mail to the organiser prior to the event.

During the registration process participants will have an opportunity to indicate any dietary requirements and/or access requirements in view of their participation to any lunches/dinners during the event, and/or to facilitate their access to the premises.

For those speakers for which travel and accommodation will be facilitated, they will be contacted by MCI Benelux which will require contact details in order to arrange their travel.

3. On what legal ground(s) do we process your personal data?

The processing operations on personal data linked to the organisation, management, follow-up and promotion of the conference (including web-streaming, photos, audio-visual recording) are necessary for the management and functioning of the Commission, as mandated by the Treaties. Those provisions are in particular, Article 11 of the Treaty on European Union and Article 15 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union.

Consequently, those processing operations are lawful under Article 5(1)(a) of Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 (processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the Union institution or body).

Your consent is required for the following actions during the meeting or event (if applicable):

- The processing of your personal data for registration purposes;
- the processing of your personal data relating to your dietary and/or access requirements;
- the processing of your personal data relating to your travel and accommodation where necessary;
- the joining in a virtual event studio, for participants joining remotely, including video and/or audio connection;
- the sharing of the participants list containing your name and affiliation with other participants for the purpose of future collaboration;
- the publication of the photos and audio-visual recording for promotion and public relation efforts relating to the event on LinkedIn/Twitter and the following dedicated websites:

If you opt-in, you are giving us your explicit consent under Article 5(1)(d) of Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 to process your personal data for those specific purposes. You can give your consent via a clear affirmative act by ticking the consent form on the online registration platform.

Your consent for these purposes can be withdrawn after registration at any time by sending an email to ec-events@wearemci.com.

4. Which personal data do we collect and further process?

The following personal data may be processed in the context of the meeting or event:

- contact details (function/title, first name, last name, name of organisation, city, country, e-mail address, telephone number);
- passport or identity card number and date of issue and expiry as well as financial information (such as a payment card number or bank account) may be collected for the booking of travel and accommodation of speakers of the Conference or for possible reimbursements; Where applicable, credit cards will be requested during check-in in the hotel to cover any personal expense;

- dietary requests (if any) or specific access requirements;
- signature and audio-visual recording of the event.

5. How long do we keep your personal data?

The Data Controller only keeps your personal data for the time necessary to fulfil the purpose of collection or further processing. For each of the categories of personal data that may be processed, please find below the retention details and the reference to the relevant record of processing:

- Personal data related to the organisation and management of the conference (this includes the information given during the registration, before, during or after the event) will be kept for five years after the conference.
- Sensitive personal data relating to dietary and/or access requirements will be deleted as soon as they are no longer necessary for the purpose for which they have been collected in the framework of the conference, but no later than within 1 month after the end of the conference.
- Audio-visual recordings will be kept for 3 months after the event before being deleted.
- Selected service providers for organisational purposes (such as caterers, travel agents or event management organisations) are contractually bound to process personal data on behalf of and in line with the instructions of the data controller, keep confidential any data they process and protect it from unauthorised access, use and retention.

6. How do we protect and safeguard your personal data?

All personal data in electronic format (e-mails, documents, databases, uploaded batches of data, etc.) are stored on the servers of DEFIS.A2, MCI (its contractor) or of NARC. All processing operations are carried out pursuant to Commission Decision \(EU, Euratom\) 2017/46 of 10 January 2017 on the security of communication and information systems in the European Commission.

In order to protect your personal data, DEFIS.A2 and NARC have put in place a number of technical and organisational measures. Technical measures include appropriate actions to address online security, risk of data loss, alteration of data or unauthorised access, taking into consideration the risk presented by the processing and the nature of the personal data being processed. Organisational measures include restricting access to the personal data solely to authorised persons with a legitimate need to know for the purposes of this processing operation.

The Commission's processors (contractors) are bound by a specific contractual clause for any processing operations of your personal data on behalf of the Commission. The processors have to put in place appropriate technical and organisational measures to ensure the level of security, required by the Commission.

7. Who has access to your personal data and to whom is it disclosed?

Access to your personal data is provided to the Commission and NARC staff responsible for carrying out this processing operation and to other authorised Commission staff according to the "need to know" principle. Such staff abide by statutory, and when required, additional confidentiality agreements.

DEFIS A.2 and NARC jointly agree on the agenda of the event. DEFIS A.2 is responsible for setting up and managing the conference webpages, related participants registration, securing catering, and arranging travel and accommodation of a limited number of selected speakers and has signed a contract with MCI Benelux (processor) which will take care of these aspects. NARC looks after securing the venue.

Where necessary, we may also share your information with service providers for the purpose of organising the event. Service providers are hosting personal data in the EU, or have BCRs in place (WebEx, Docusign).

Cookies

Cookies are short text files stored on a user's device (such as a computer, tablet or phone) by a website. Cookies are used for the technical functioning of a website (functional cookies) or for gathering statistics (analytical cookies).

Registration for the meeting takes place via the Aventri Platform which employ cookies as described here: <https://www.aventri.com/privacy-policy>.

Enabling these cookies is not strictly necessary for the website to work but it will provide you with a better browsing experience. You can delete or block these cookies, but if you do that, some features of the website may not work as intended.

The cookie-related information is not used to identify data subjects personally. These cookies are not used for any purpose other than those described here.

Should you wish to opt your personal data out of our anonymised, aggregated statistics, you can do so on our cookies page. In particular, you can control and/or delete those cookies as you wish.

Third party IT tools, including Social Media

We may use third party IT tools to inform about and promote the meeting or event through widely used communication channels, including the social media. For detailed information about the use of social media by the European Commission, see the Record of Processing DPR-EC-00073 (Social Media Use by the European Commission).

You may be able to watch our videos, which may be also uploaded to one of our social media pages and follow links from our website to other relevant social media.

In order to protect your privacy, our use of third party IT tools to connect to those services does not set cookies when our website pages are loaded on your computer (or other devices), nor are you immediately redirected to those social media or other websites. Only in the event that you click on a button or "play" on a video to watch it, a cookie of the social media company concerned will be installed on your device. If you do not click on any social media buttons or videos, no cookies will be installed on your device by third parties.

In order to view such third-party content on our websites, a message will alert you that you need to accept those third parties' specific Terms and Conditions, including their cookie policies, over which the Commission has no control.

We recommend that users carefully read the relevant privacy policies of the social media tools used: Twitter, LinkedIn, Instagram and YouTube. These explain each company's policy of personal data collection and further processing, their use of data, users' rights and the ways in which users can protect their privacy when using those services.

Please note that this meeting or event may be held using a third party videoconference IT service such as Microsoft Skype for Business or Cisco Webex. This IT tools have their own cookies and privacy policies over which the Commission has a limited or no control. By participating into the meeting or event via a videoconference IT tool, the participants consent to the processing of their personal data via the third party tool as described in the related privacy policy.

The use of a third party IT tool does not in any way imply that the European Commission endorses them or their privacy policies. In the event that one or more third party IT tools are occasionally unavailable, we accept no responsibility for lack of service due to their downtime.

International transfers

Please note that pursuant to Article 3(13) of Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 public authorities (e.g. Court of Auditors, EU Court of Justice) which may receive personal data in the framework of a particular inquiry in accordance with Union or Member State law shall not be regarded as recipients. The further processing of those data by those public authorities shall be in compliance with the applicable data protection rules according to the purposes of the processing.

The information we collect will not be given to any third party, except to the extent and for the purpose we may be required to do so by law.

8. What are your rights and how can you exercise them?

You have specific rights as a 'data subject' under Chapter III (Articles 14-25) of Regulation (EU) 2018/1725, in particular the right to access, your personal data and to rectify them in case your personal data are inaccurate or incomplete. Where applicable, you have the right to erase your personal data, to restrict the processing of your personal data, to object to the processing, and the right to data portability.

You have the right to object to the processing of your personal data, which is lawfully carried out pursuant to Article 5(1)(a) of Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 on grounds relating to your particular situation.

If you have consented to provide your personal data to the data controllers for the present processing operation, you can withdraw your consent at any time by writing to ec-events@wearemci.com. The withdrawal of your consent will not affect the lawfulness of the processing carried out before you have withdrawn the consent.

You can exercise your rights by contacting the Data Controller, or in case of conflict the Data Protection Officer. If necessary, you can also address the European Data Protection Supervisor. Their contact information is given under Heading 9 below.

Where you wish to exercise your rights in the context of one or several specific processing operations, please provide their description (i.e. their Record reference(s) as specified under Heading 10 below) in your request.

9. Contact information

- The Data Controllers
