3. Appeals Handling Process

3.1 Definition of an Appeal

An appeal refers to a formal disagreement with a certification decision made by Halal Quality Control, submitted in writing or via email by a certified client.

Appeals from non-certified clients or applicants without any signed contractual agreement will not be considered.

3.2 Appeal Submission and Acceptance

Appeals must be submitted in writing within 45 days of the decision in question.

Upon receipt, Halal Quality Control will review the appeal to determine its validity and notify the appellant of its acceptance or rejection.

Appeals are assessed by personnel who were not involved in the original certification decision.

3.3 Investigation and Deliberation

Once an appeal is accepted, the Appeals Committee, composed of impartial members, will be convened to review the case.

The appellant may be invited to present their case if they so choose.

3.4 Communication of the Decision

The decision of the Appeals Committee will be communicated to the appellant in writing. If the appellant disagrees with the decision, they may submit a request for re-evaluation within 31 days of receiving the response.

This re-evaluation will only be considered if accompanied by additional evidence.

4. Complaints Handling Process

4.1 Definition of a Complaint

A complaint refers to any formal expression of dissatisfaction from any third party regarding the services provided by Halal Quality Control.

Complaints must be submitted in writing, through the Complaint Form, or via email and may pertain to:

- a. Halal Certification services
- b. Management systems of Halal Quality Control
- c. Disputes with HQC staff members
- d. Customer service issues
- e. Training or audit services.

4.2 Submission and Acceptance

Complaints must be submitted within 31 days of the issue arising.

Anonymous complaints or those without clear contact details will not be processed.

Halal Quality Control will review each complaint to determine its validity and notify the complainant of its acceptance or rejection.

Contact Channels:

www.halalqualitycontrol.com/complaints

info@halalqualitycontrol.com or any other HQC Branch email

+31 70 346 97 95

4.3 Investigation and Resolution

The complaints accepted will be investigated by personnel not involved in the subject of the complaint.

For complaints involving a Halal-certified client, HQC may refer the issue to the certified client to obtain further information.

4.4 Communication of the Decision

Once a resolution has been determined, the decision will be communicated to the complainant in writing.

If the complainant disagrees, they may request a re-examination within 31 days, provided they submit new evidence to support their claim.

4.5 Appeal Committee Review

If the complainant remains dissatisfied, Halal Quality Control may convene a Complaints Handling Committee composed of impartial external members to conduct a final review. The decision made by this committee is final.

5. Corrective and Preventive Actions

Halal Quality Control will take appropriate corrective and preventive actions based on findings from complaints and appeals.

These actions aim to ensure continuous improvement and compliance with relevant standards.
