Welcome to our ninth annual Open Studios.

A free event bringing local artists and the public together and building links with the community.

- Visit artists in their studios
- See them at work
- Discuss their creative inspiration
- Find out how their art is created
- Some include demonstrations and refreshments

Much of the work on display is for sale and many artists are happy to accept commissions.

Not all studios are open for all the days, so please check individual studio dates. Some studios may open by appointment, check with the artist directly.
