Top tips to stay healthy & avoid falls Hydration:

STOPFALLS

Dehydration can result in constipation, water infections, poor skin, and increase the likelihood of a fall. It also can make a person feel tired and affect the memory and concentration levels. Consider using a fluid tracking chart to understand how often a person in your care is drinking and how often they might be urinating.

© Hertfordshire Care Providers Association Ltd. 2020 - All Rights Reserved