LEAD THE FUTURE

IBIZA MICE SUMMIT®

5TH EDITION

Vicente Marí
President of Consell d'Eivissa

Ibiza is one of the most popular tourist destinations worldwide and year over year the island reinforces its commitment to improve its offer. For this reason, the island is clearly committed to the MICE industry as an opportunity to diversify our tourism offer, beyond the well-known image of sun, beach and leisure.

Our goal is to move towards innovation and sustainability, not only regarding the environment, but also from an economic and social point of view and that is why we want to include and promote products that are a clear example of respectful tourism and with visitors who value the destination.

Therefore, I invite you to take full advantage of this important event to get to know all the islands that coexist in one: Ibiza. Enjoy its nature, its gastronomy, its heritage, its avant-garde and its exclusivity.

I hope you will enjoy your stay on the island and these working sessions that will be interesting and helpful to progress in the consolidation of a leading sector in the international tourism industry.

Welcome to Ibiza!

Ibiza Mice Summit® is a registered trademark under license n° 018609978

what is Ibiza MICE Summit® ?

Ibiza MICE Summit® was born as a forum for knowledge, inspiration and collaboration for companies and professionals in the MICE sector. It arises as a commitment to be a benchmark in this industry and consolidate year after year as an essential appointment within the MICE panorama.

Ibiza MICE Summit® is intended for professionals in the meetings & events sector, who will analyze the present and future of events and meeting tourism as the engine of economic recovery.

The event will feature different panels taught by leaders and prominent professionals on the international scene, with which we will analyze the present and short-term future of the sector, creating a roadmap and highlighting the main challenges and key aspects of the that we face

// IBIZA, YOUR MICE

Ibiza is the essence of the Mediterranean. Its beaches, landscapes, heritage, cuisine and people embody the best of the cultures that over the centuries have forged the unique personality of this island like no other in the world. Ibiza has gained a reputation for being a unique setting for holding business meetings and corporate events.

A modern and cosmopolitan island that has nevertheless been able to keep its customs and traditions alive, offering an endless variety of elements and features that give it a distinctive identity and make it a unique, unrivaled destination.

// Why Ibiza?

Location

Its international airport provides good flight connections to Spanish and major European cities.

Climate

The island's Mediterranean climate enables you to enjoy an average temperature of 18°C and more than 300 days of sunshine a year.

Hotel provision

An excellent range of accommodation with high-quality standards. The island has scores of rooms available in 4 and 5-star hotels, some brand new and others with a continuous refurbishment program, all perfectly equipped with all the facilities needed for hosting events.

Facilities

A new Conference Centre, a modern and functional complex in a fantastic setting by the sea; a Trade Fair complex very suitable for large events, and many hotels with first-rate meeting rooms provide a huge range of choices for planning events on the island.

Additional activities

Ibiza is a great small world full of magical contrasts, where business can be successfully combined with pleasure: culture and tradition, sporting and open-air activities, shopping, and wellness...

Unique venues

Ibiza has the best venues for putting together a busy work schedule or the most attractive incentive trip: exclusive restaurants with the impressive Ibiza coast as backdrop, ancient estates, centenary walls...

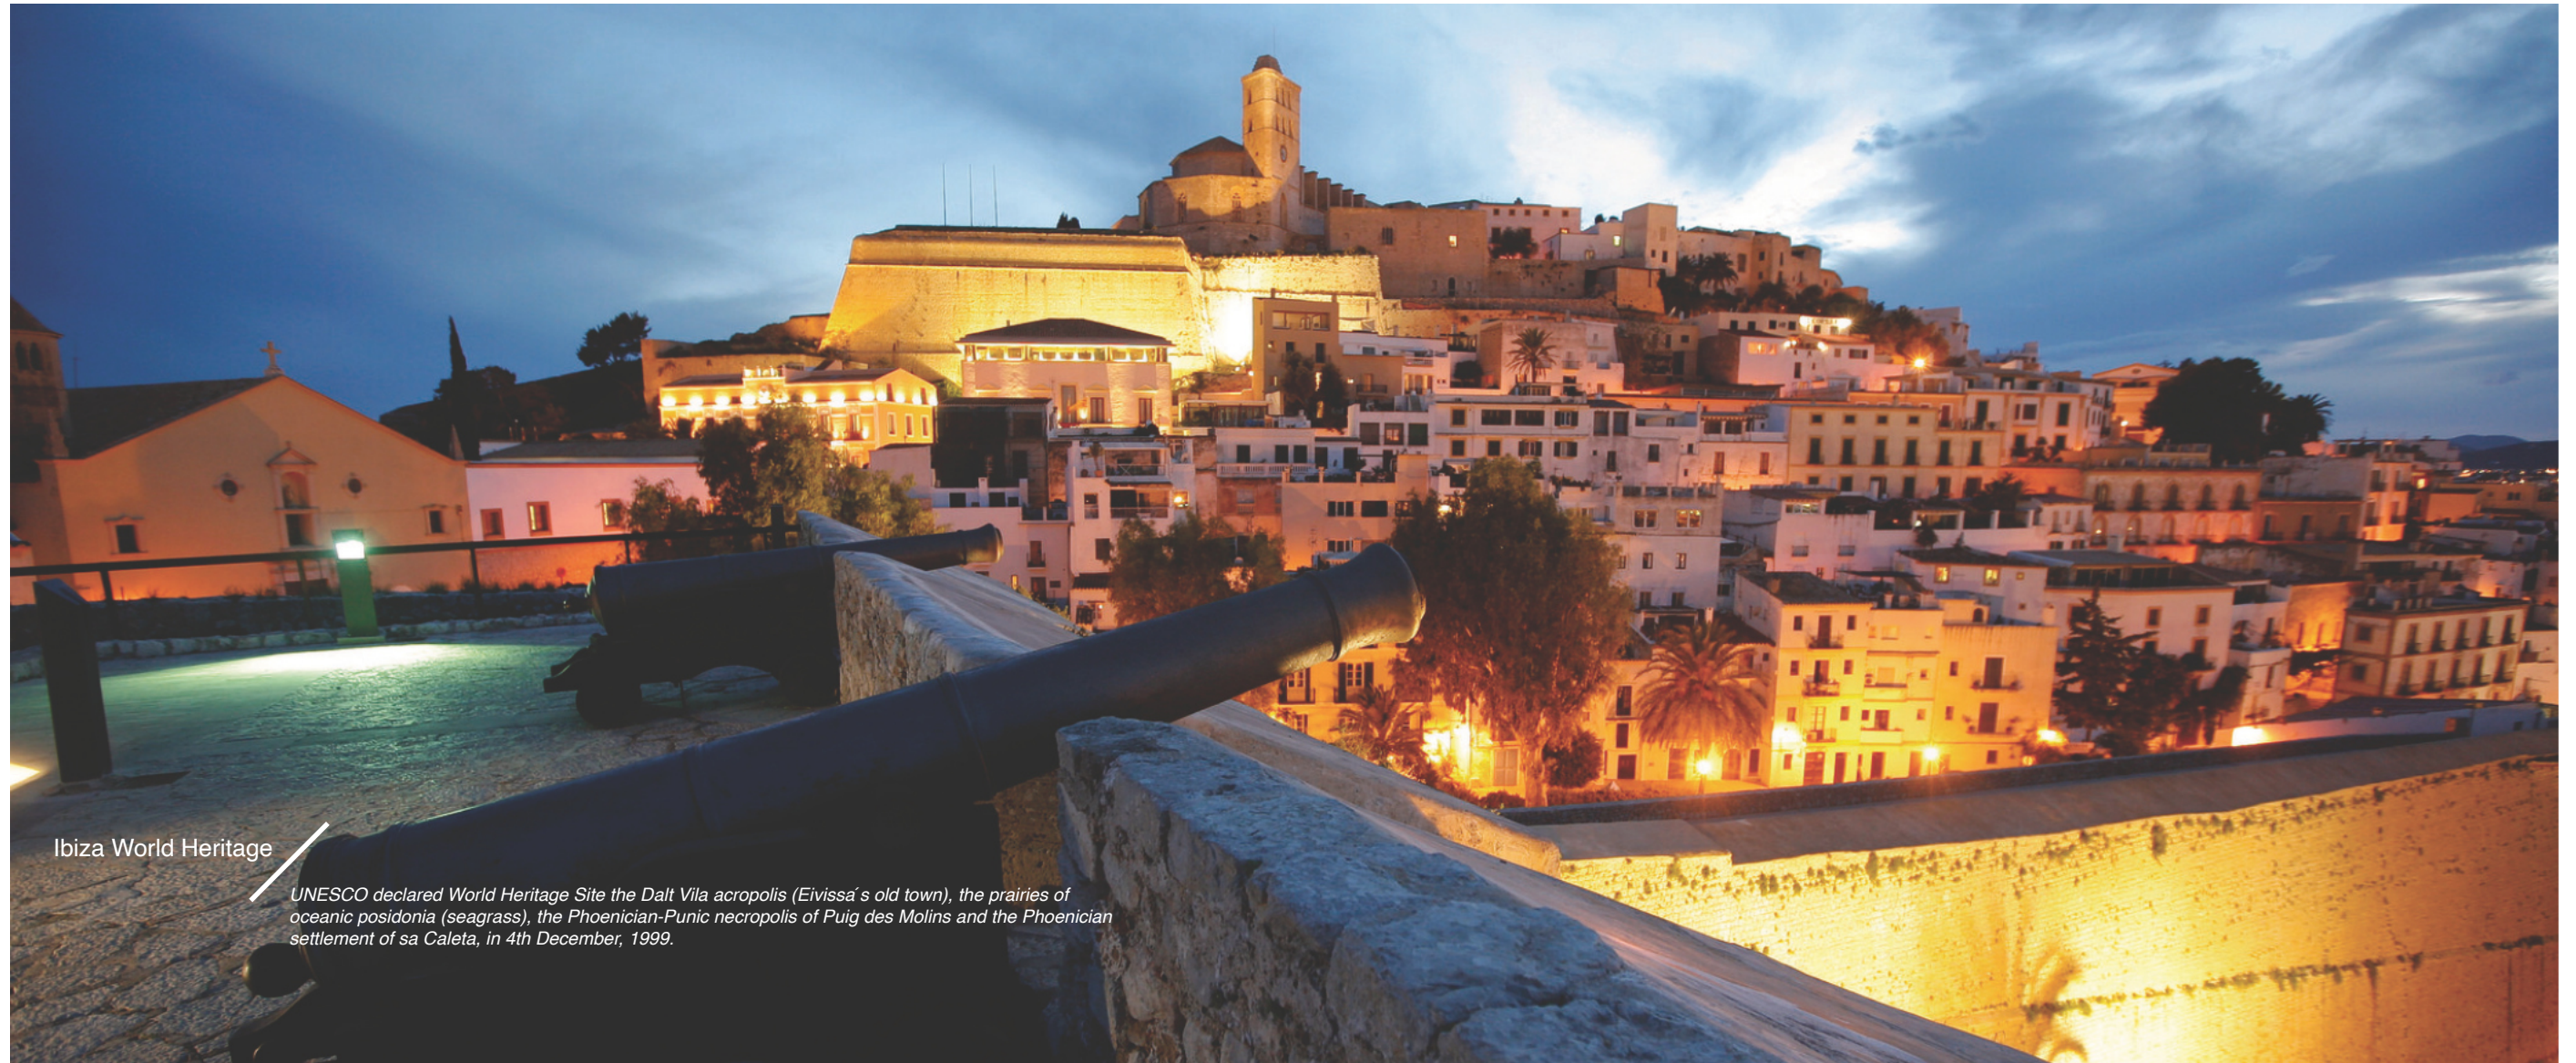

Gastronomy

Fresh fish, rice dishes, cakes and pastries, and liquors, are a word of flavor to delight the most demanding palates. Ibiza offers uniquely stylish restaurants where you can taste the very best food the island has to offer.

Simple pleasures by the sea

The 210 kilometers of Ibiza's coastline and its almost 60 beaches offer the simplest and most attractive summer pleasures, such as swimming in a secluded cove with turquoise waters, taking a siesta under the shade of a pine tree, snorkeling, paddle surfing or kayaking, gazing at the horizon from the top of a watchtower, wandering along a coastal path and discovering a new favorite spot, enjoying a delicious fish dish by the sea, admiring Ibiza's famous sunsets with the best chill-out

Ibiza World Heritage

UNESCO declared World Heritage Site the Dalt Vila acropolis (Eivissa's old town), the prairies of oceanic posidonia (seagrass), the Phoenician-Punic necropolis of Puig des Molins and the Phoenician settlement of sa Caleta, in 4th December, 1999.

Ibiza Convention Bureau (ICB) is a specialist department within Fomento del Turismo de la Isla de Ibiza (Island of Ibiza Tourism Development). The Bureau's work involves promoting Ibiza as a destination for conferences, conventions, work meetings, incentive trips and other kinds of events, as well as publicising the island's international image to this industry segment.

Location

Ibiza enjoys a privileged location in the Mediterranean Sea and its international airport provides good flight connections to Spanish capitals and major European cities. Its small size means that you can get anywhere on the island in 30 minutes. Ibiza, a true Mediterranean paradise only a 2 hours' flight away.

Why Ibiza

Bathed by the Mediterranean Sea, Ibiza is one of the world's most famous destinations, yet it retains an air of mystery and is still full of surprises. In recent years, Ibiza has gained a reputation for being a unique setting for holding business meetings and corporate events.

Unique Venues

Ibiza has the best venues for putting together a busy work schedule or the most attractive incentive trip. Exclusive restaurants with the impressive Ibiza coast as backdrop, beach clubs in the loveliest coves, rural tourism properties where you can feel at peace, ancient estates surrounded by orange groves, the most exclusive clubs in the world and ancient walls, to mention just a few of the island's secret hideaways.

Stay & Meet

An excellent range of accommodation with high quality standards. The island has scores of rooms available in 4 and 5 star hotels, some brand new and others with a continuous refurbishment programme, all perfectly equipped with all the facilities needed for hosting events.

Inspiring Meeting Spaces

Ibiza offers a unique variety of venues, from the modern Congress Center and the Trade Fair Complex to the intimate Caló de s'Oli auditorium and the Cultural Center of Jesús — the perfect settings for events of every size and style.

Activities that inspire and connect

Team-building activities that blend gastronomy, culture and tradition, nature, sports and nautical experiences, and Ibiza's hippy spirit — the best way to discover the island's true essence.

Are you thinking in Ibiza as a venue to your next corporate event? You can fully rely on the Ibiza Convention Bureau to assist you in this matter, we provide expert advice and connect you, free of charge, with the island's top suppliers.

An exquisite building, inspired by traditional Ibiza architecture that tribute to the typical ibiza environment

Ibiza Congress Center is only a few metres away from the centre of Santa Eulària des Riu, just 25 kilometres from Ibiza airport. This modern building was officially opened in 2008, placing the island at the forefront of Spanish conference tourism. Is set in a large area of pine forest only 40 metres from the seashore. Its spectacular location and modern facilities make it a unique place for holding conferences, conventions and all kinds of events.

The forward-looking building design is inspired by traditional island architecture and pays tribute to Ibiza's rural dwellings, a true reflection of the island's natural essence, with wide open spaces lit by the natural light that streams in through strategically placed skylights all through the building.

The auditorium has seating for 437 people, plus there is an exhibition hall and a range of other rooms that are fully versatile and can be arranged to suit your needs.

// welcome to ibiza /eivissa

A nucleus for the convergence and interchange of numerous cultures – Punic, Phoenician, Roman, Byzantine, Visigoth, Muslim and Catalan – Ibiza today is known throughout the world for the beauty of the 'ship of stone', as poets have been known to call Dalt Vila, the best-preserved walled fortification in the Mediterranean region and a location that has been declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Ibiza is also renowned for its privileged natural surroundings and for the millennial swords of Posidonia Oceanica, which were included in the World Heritage declaration as they help maintain the marine ecosystem and ensure both the preservation of the sand on the local beaches and the crystalline transparency of the waters around the Pityusic Islands.

Eivissa is a celebrated tourism destination, and not only for its cultural heritage, but also for the availability of arts, sports, gastronomy, shopping and leisure opportunities for all ages and for a possessing a lively, cosmopolitan ambience that attracts visitors from the world over.

Welcome to Eivissa (Ibiza), a voyage that never ends due to the fact that the town is constantly reinventing itself and never fails to surprise. Eivissa is your

// SANTA EULÀRIA DES RIU a destination equipped for your success

Located only 20 km away from Ibiza airport, the municipality of Santa Eulària des Riu offers all the necessary resources for the successful hosting of conferences, conventions, incentive trips, product presentations and any category of professional event. It is, without a doubt, a land of encounters.

Santa Eulària des Riu, whose municipality occupies the island's eastern coast and adjacent rural inland, is a MICE destination par excellence thanks to its spacious conference hall, the Palacio de Congresos. This modern, functional and versatile venue is located at the far end of Santa Eulària's waterfront boulevard and contains a variety of multipurpose spaces, including an auditorium capable of holdling 437 people. Throughout the year, this welldesigned civic centre hosts national and international corporate events as well as cultural performances.

The township is also home two other municipal spaces where smaller capacity professional events can be held. The first is Teatro España (284 persons), a singular setting located only one kilometre away from the Palacio de Congresos. The second is the Jesús Cultural Centre (252 persons), whose auditorium and multipurpose rooms are located less than 4 km from the island's capital. In addition to these three modern constructions, event organisers may also avail themselves of the numerous spaces offered by hotels and agritourism guesthouses, many of which have meeting rooms and technical equipment on the premises in order to accommodate business tourism. Such installations allow businesses to combine work and pleasure in a single setting, thanks to the accompanying hospitality services, sports activities and wellness treatments.

First Class Accommodation to Enhance your Event

Ibiza's international renown as a tourist destination means that Santa Eulària des Riu is home to an outstanding number of quality hotels, boasting two 5* GL hotels, four 5* hotels, and nineteen 4* SUP and 4* hotels. Additionally, there are a number of luxury agritourism hotels and rural boutique hotels that lend themselves beautifully to smaller events, such as product presentations or incentive trips. The happy combination of meeting facilities and select services which may include spas and gastronomic restaurants make these establishments veritable assets for the satisfactory outcome of your event.

Gastronomy: an accomplice to your success

Santa Eulària des Riu has a top class culinary offer that prides itself on its traditional roots and its preferential use of local products, without sacrificing openness to more cosmopolitan influences. So, whether you're sitting by the sea, ensconced in an old farmhouse with spectacular views, or perched on the terrace of an exclusive hotel, you'll find a broad diversity of quality restaurants throughout our municipality. Just choose the ones that best suit your requirements, whether it be for a gala dinner, a welcome cocktail, a meet-and-greet, a buffet, a show cooking extravaganza, or a luncheon. You'll find culinary offerings that range from sophisticated sampling menus concocted by prestige chefs to Ibicenco specialties prepared at of some of the bestknown traditional restaurants on the island.

Leisure that inspires

The success of a corporate event often depends on the entertainments that are locally available.

The success of a corporate event often depends on the entertainments that are locally available. Santa Eulària provides a wide variety of complementary leisure activities that can be enjoyed before, during or after your event. There are over twenty coves and beaches with transparent waters, numerous walking and cycling trails, aquatic and nautical activities designed for groups, museums and interpretation centres, spas and thalassotherapy centres, hippie markets and original concept stores, as well as bars and terraces to unwind at the end of a long day...not to mention a number of group ac-tivities such as cooking workshops, yoga classes, wine tastings and horseback riding. With so much diversity, you're sure to find an entertainment that fits the spirit of your event

DISCOVER IBIZA

Ibiza is located east of the Iberian Peninsula, in the Mediterranean Sea, in the autonomous region of Illes Balears.

Ibiza has a surface of 572 km2 and it is a small big world that extends from the coast to inland in a smooth topography. Together with Formentera, it forms the Pityusic Islands, or Pine Islands as the Greeks called them. Ibiza is made up of five towns: Ibiza, which is the capital, Santa Eulària des Riu, Sant Josep de Sa Talaia, Sant Antoni de Portmany, and Sant Joan de Labritja. Each of them offers its visitors both different and supplementary possibilities. According to the register's last data, the island has a population of over 140,000 inhabitants, although the number of residents grows considerably during summer season.

A FASCINATING PAST

Ibiza is one of the oldest urban environments in Western Mediterranean, and the first in the Balearic archipelago. Its past is stunning and fundamental to understand its present, its cultural and social reality, through the mosaic of cultures that have steadily occupied it since 2700 AC. The most important monument in Ibiza is the Renaissance wall of Dalt Vila, in Ibiza city, declared UNESCO World Heritage Site in 1999. There is an important historical and cultural patrimony scattered throughout the territory such as the sacred mount of Santa Eulària and Sant Miquel; the church-fortresses on each town, the singular defense towers, and wells and oil mills of Arab origin, declared Place of Cultural Interest. Throughout its history, Ibiza has always interacted with other cultures: Punics, Phoenicians, Romans, Arabs.

// A space for the development of the MICE sector in Ibiza

The Sant Josep de sa Talaia Town Council would like to invite agents involved in MICE and business and congress tourism to visit the recently inaugurated Caló de s'Oli Auditorium, which overlooks the sea and is one of the most emblematic cultural venues in the bay of Portmany, Offering a unique outstanding setting for all types of corporate events.

Is a multi- purpose space that was inaugurated in 2021 and whose facilities include an open-air amphitheatre with capacity for a total of 300 people and a conventional auditorium with capacity for a further 255. It also has a multi-purpose hall and is equipped with dressing rooms and a large stage for holding conferences, concerts, plays, meetings and other events.

The interior hall has a large screen and a digital projection system (DGP) as well as a refined surround sound system that provides the halls with excellent acoustic quality. The PA system, microphone equipment and stage lighting, operated from the control station at the back of the hall, provides solutions to any technical requirement. In addition, the staggered arrangement of the seats in a tiered amphitheatre allows for perfect visibility of the stage area.

The facilities also include an Exhibition Hall whose multi-functionality and technical equipment allows for a wide range of events, even having the capacity for large-format sculptures, all this complemented by the Indoor Hall and the Outdoor Amphitheatre, facing the Bay of Portmany.

Sant Antoni
de Portmany

UN LUGAR PARA
CELEBRAR
SANT ANTONI DE PORTMANÝ

//Sant Antoni, a place to celebrate

There are destinations you visit, and others you celebrate. Sant Antoni de Portmany, on the western coast of Ibiza, belongs to the latter. With its timeless light, unforgettable sunsets and a renewed cultural identity, Sant Antoni is a meeting point for those seeking more than sun and sea, a place for shared memories, emotional landscapes, and meaningful travel.

The town's evolving identity is embodied in “Endless Rainbow Walking”, the monumental artwork by Spanish artist Okuda San Miguel. Installed on Carrer Santa Agnès, this multicolour kaleidoscope transforms the urban space into a celebration of creativity and diversity, an open invitation to walk, dream and connect. A vibrant contrast with the surrounding whitewashed architecture, the work makes Sant Antoni one of the few towns in Europe where contemporary art becomes part of the everyday experience.

Nature, serenity and sunsets that speak

Sant Antoni's natural heritage remains the beating heart of the destination. Its coves, from Cala Salada to Caló des Moro, are sculpted by turquoise waters, pine forests and cliffs that invite you to disconnect. But what makes this place special isn't just the beauty, it's the pace.

The beaches are managed under EMAS and ISO 14001 environmental certifications, and the town has made accessibility a priority, ensuring inclusive beach services across the coastline. As the sun dips into the sea, the bay becomes a natural amphitheatre, with locals and visitors gathering in silence to watch one of Ibiza's most famous sunsets.

For those who love to move

Whether by land or sea, Sant Antoni is made for active travellers. The coastline is perfect for kayaking, snorkelling, and sailing, with local clubs offering equipment and guided excursions. Inland, a network of cycling and hiking routes weaves through the countryside, linking traditional villages like Santa Agnès. Sant Mateu, Forada, Sant Rafel, Sports events throughout the year, from open water swims to BTT races and local regattas, reinforce the town's commitment to outdoor living and healthy tourism.

Flavours rooted in the land

Forget imported menus or mainstream formulas. The food scene in Sant Antoni is quietly but confidently rethinking itself. Local chefs are rediscovering traditional recipes, mixing seasonal produce with a modern eye and a farm-to-table philosophy that reflects the island's rural roots. From creative seafront cuisine to rustic inland restaurants, this is a place to eat slowly and taste deeply.

Beyond clichés: tradition with a pulse

Culture here doesn't sleep. From folk dances under the stars to exhibitions, jazz concerts, and short film festivals, Sant Antoni's calendar is filled with local colour and artistic experimentation. In summer, the town hosts unique events but even a quiet stroll through the marina or a drink at Sa Punta des Molí can become a celebration of island character.

A destination with soul, all year round

Sant Antoni isn't just a holiday. It's a place where nature, art and heritage converge in a spirit of openness and celebration. Whether you come for sports, slow travel, discovery or simply to reconnect, you'll find a town that has grown with purpose, without losing its soul.

It's more than a destination. It's a place to celebrate.

Guests enter into the expansive property, greeted by the stunning sea view from the open-air restaurant. A pathway leads to the pool area, surrounded by comfortable daybeds and lounge seating.

On the sand, full-service cabanas await for all-day relaxation.

Discover NCALMA Hotel Group, where we offer three hotels across the island. Each property boasts its unique personality, designed to perfectly match every event. Get to know the sophisticated Aguas de Ibiza Grand Luxe Hotel with 145 rooms, the bohemian spirit of Nativo Ibiza, and our new brand: Bonito Ibiza, the place to be in Ibiza with 252 rooms and spacious meeting spaces.

Aguas de Ibiza Grand Luxe Hotel fuses beautiful, daylight-filled spaces with modern technology and natural elegance.

Perfect for inspiring thinking and efficient gatherings. Its wellness offerings and expert services provide a balanced and productive environment, making it an exceptional venue for everything from conferences and retreats to launches and networking events. Perfectly located opposite the Ibiza Conference Centre and just a short drive from the airport.

Bonito Ibiza is a five-star design-forward retreat on Ibiza's west coast, in San Antonio Bay, that seamlessly combines relaxed luxury, bold energy, and functional elegance, creating the ideal setting for creative corporate gatherings, intimate conferences, and brand activations. Bonito Ibiza offers over 1,000m² of flexible event venues by the sea, including indoor conferences or gala dinners, the spacious Overlook Terrace, and the lush Palm Garden.

Nativo Hotel Ibiza is a 4-star boutique retreat that fuses bohemian charm with eco-conscious hospitality.

Casi un siglo de historias bajo un mismo techo. Un icono de Ibiza, una joya a los pies de Dalt Vila. Un hotel de lujo en el corazón de la ciudad de Ibiza. Abierto todo el año, nuestra escapada balear fue en su día refugio de las grandes estrellas de Hollywood durante los años cincuenta. Montesol allanó el camino a la paz y el amor en las décadas siguientes. Hoy en día, el hotel original de Ibiza sigue en pie.

Bajo el techo de Montesol Experimental, encontrará 33 habitaciones diseñadas por Dorothée Meilichzon, cada una con vistas a la ciudad de Ibiza, desde la hermosa Dalt Vila hasta el puerto deportivo donde los barcos viajan hacia y desde la cercana Formentera. En la planta baja, desayune, almuerce o cene en nuestro restaurante y terraza al aire libre o suba a nuestro bar de la azotea para disfrutar de una noche de cócteles. Un hotel emblemático, reimaginado.

Teatro Pereyra Ibiza, a cultural landmark since 1898 and declared a Site of Cultural Interest (BIC), reopens its doors after a meticulous restoration to host truly special moments. You bring the occasion, we provide the stage. Our theatre offers three unique settings: the Teatro Pereyra, the Sala Sandoval, and the Café Pereyra. Or perhaps you'd prefer the exclusivity of having all our spaces combined?

The versatility of our venues ensures the perfect adaptation to any format. We offer a wide range of possibilities to make your event truly unique: Large-scale events: Galas, corporate dinners, premium product launches, and high-impact business events, among others, in the main hall. Intimate gatherings: Concerts, stand-up comedy, coffee breaks, press conferences, informal cocktail receptions, and countless other possibilities in the Café Pereyra or Sala Sandoval.

We bring your ideas to life — in a 19th-century theatre, with 21st-century technology.
