Our Shared Commitment

Cobden House will make every endeavour to plan and deliver services to children and young people in full compliance with the governments agenda for children's social care, as set out within context of the 'Children Homes Regulation including quality standards 2015 and the current Surrey 'Children & Young People Plan 2017-20', 'Safeguarding' and 'Narrowing the Gap'.

To this end our key priorities will be to work in a way that:

- Children & young people are confident to respond to bullying.
- Children & young peoples' emotional wellbeing and mental health is well supported.
- Ensures stable, secure, safe and effective care for children and young people.
- Ensures better life chances for children in need and those in care (e.g. good education, health from a holistic perspective, and social care).
- Actively involves clients and carers in decisions pertaining to planning and service delivery.
- Promotes effective partnership working to protect and promote the welfare of Children & Young People within context of current legislation and guidance.
- Good assessments are undertaken given rise to individually tailored plan that affords all children and young people opportunity to thrive and realize their potential.
- Children & young people with learning difficulties and disabilities are empowered to reach their full potential.
- Support children & young people to manage mental health issues.

The values of the home

We believe that:

- Residential care should provide children with skilled support from committed staff in a safe, caring and ordered environment.
- We have a responsibility to ensure that children in residential care are protected from abuse and neglect.
- Care should form part of a range of services, which combine to meet children and young people's needs and support their families and carers.
- We should recruit support staff that are carefully selected and have opportunities to develop skills and professional practice through training and supervision.

breaking point. Notwithstanding this, it is our belief that, stability and access to support and nurturing are critical in order to help build resilience and a solid and sustainable platform for adulthood and independence. To this end, we aim to offer a home that values children and young people regardless of their differences and diversity, as such, qualities including tolerance and acceptance are essential to our recruitment process.

We also believe that children & young people grow and flourish as a direct result of good parenting, by being included in the daily decisions of their family group. To this end it is our aim that our Home will offer both quality individual time, (the development of meaningful relationships with key workers), and as importantly, instilling tolerance and acceptance of others by living as part of a group.

We adopt a realistic attitude in that living in a group home can present with difficulties of its own. However, we also believe that it is by being mindful of this that we continue to review on-going care practices to ensure our young people receive the individual input dictated by their unique needs.

Our physical environment, the activities and social inclusion opportunities we offer and the staffing arrangement will actively counteract any adverse effects that may otherwise present owing to the size of the home.

Although every attempt is made to create a warm, family like environment, we remain committed to the belief that a child or young person's own natural family has its own unique qualities. Therefore, as a residential service we work towards maintaining good communication links with the families and other agencies that work with the children or young people.

It is our overall aim to offer placements in an effort to assist the child through the transition into adulthood and although we accept that placements can break down, we will only offer a place based on the real belief that we can make it successful.

We give our expressed commitment to provide children and young people with structures, care and support in ways that aids and promotes growth, personal and social development in order that they are empowered to make informed choices, aspire, compete, and realise their full potential, thereby being well positioned to make valued contributions as good citizens wherever they choose to reside. To this end, children accommodated at Cobden House will receive the full benefits of a planning and service delivery model that is client-centred in all respects.

Consequently, our organisational ethos emphasises and endorses the following principles:

Privacy: Staff will ensure that each child or young person is treated as a respected individual who can exercise privacy in as many areas of their life as possible. Staff will take into account the need to safeguard their welfare and act in strict accordance with their placement plan.

Dignity & Respect: We recognise the intrinsic value of each individual child or young person. Children and young people are respected as individuals, we respect their uniqueness and their individual needs. This encourages children to keep their sense of personal heritage, identity and community.

Independence. We will support and enable the children & young people accommodated with us to make their own decisions with minimal need for reference to others in agreement with their placement plan whilst ensuring their safety at all times.

Choice: Our staff will ensure that opportunities exist for each child or young person to exercise choice in as many aspects of their daily lives as possible. This need for choice will be balanced with the need to safeguard and maintain welfare.

Rights: Children and young people will be given the same rights as individuals living in the community. Cobden House supports Articles 42 of the 'United Nations Convention on the Rights (and Responsibilities) of the Child' see: www.unicef.org.uk. The children and young people who stay with us will be given information about this.

Fulfilment: In recognition that young people are children first; the children accommodated with us will be encouraged and supported to realise personal potential and abilities in all aspects of life.

Spirituality: Where a child or young person expresses an interest, staff will discuss and support them in meeting their spiritual beliefs/requirements. Where appropriate, members of staff will refer the child or young person to those who are better placed to offer this support. We have respect for all religions and belief systems.

Equality: We will ensure that the services and facilities of the home are accessible and available to all. The service provided by our staff should not judge children and young people's circumstances, backgrounds and lifestyles. It should not discriminate on the grounds of race, culture, language, religious beliefs, gender, sexuality or disability. Individuality will be valued; A commitment to treat children fairly.

Quality: promoting quality services which are based on agreed standards and meet legal and good practice requirements. A commitment to ensure that staff working with children and young people will do what they say they do.

Listening: a commitment to listen to children and young people and help them express their wishes and needs in whatever way is best suited to the individual child or young person.

Confidentiality: We will treat all personal information in confidence. The team is committed to only share personal information with other professionals about a young person on a 'need to know basis', balancing the need to protect with being able to provide a good service

These principles we believe are consistent and compatible with those outlined within the 'Quality Standards' for children and young people, namely:

- a) the quality and purpose of care standard
- b) the children's views, wishes and feelings standard
- c) the education standard
- d) the enjoyment and achievement standard
- e) the health and well-being standard
- f) the positive relationships standard
- g) the protection of children standard
- h) the leadership and management standard
- i) the care planning standard.

all of which informs our work. As such we will make every endeavour to provide an environment that offers access to positive role models, that promotes acceptance, healing and stability, whilst ensuring due consideration is given to the safety of children & young people, those working within the home and visitors. Accordingly, care, support, education, key working, therapy and other services will be structured to meet individual needs and further will be subject to regular reviews. This will be complimented by positive reinforcement facilitated via the giving of praise and recognition and constructive use of reward and sanctions, to support learning.

In order to ensure consistency and maximize benefit for our children, Cobden House operates the principles of transparency and therefore will fully commit to forging open, supportive relationships with children, young people, families/carers, partner agencies and stakeholders. As such during consultative forums and in the event of an unplanned placement breakdown, feedback will be regularly sought and acted upon in order to improve future planning and service delivery.

Essentially, Jamores Homes are fully committed to creating a sustainable living, working and learning environment that affords opportunities for delivering specialised and person centred packages of care and support to children and young people, at the heart of which is an ongoing endeavour to promote growth and development within context of an effective and efficient partnership network.

These needs will be identified during the child or young person's Pre-Placement Meeting. Where it applies to emergency placement; diversity issues will be identified during subsequent meeting within 72 hours of placement commencement. This early identification would enable the child or young person's allocated key worker to support religious observance and instruction.

We will endeavour to consult our young people about all aspects of their daily life on a regular basis. This will include informal consultation e.g. at dinner or more formally during 1:1 key work session. Formal consultation will also be conducted as part of the monthly Regulation 44 visits to form an opinion of the standard of care provided in the home from the children and young peoples' perspective. Children & young people accommodated with us will have the opportunity to talk to people outside of the staff team such as independent advocates e.g. the National Youth Advocacy Service (NYAS), Barnardo's Children's Advocacy service etc. We will also carry out survey to get children and stakeholders' views of the services provided at Cobden House. ## Education

10. Details of provision to support children with special educational needs.

We acknowledge the importance of education in young people's lives and will work in ways that facilitate and support young people in attending, attaining and achieving. As part of our on-going commitment to respond to the educational needs of children and young people in our care, the staff team at Cobden House will be proactive in forging and sustaining positive links with teaching staff within mainstream and support services and family members as appropriate, in order to aid effective collaboration in terms of delivering educational programs and assessing progress and recognizing achievements. As part of these efforts, staff of Cobden House will attend school consultation meetings and any other extra-curricular events that are normally attended by parents.

The arrangement for the educational needs of each child or young person including their Personal Education Plan (PEP) are clearly identified, as part of the planning and agreement process and accordingly incorporated into their individual placement plan prior to coming to stay at Cobden House. The school, in line with central government guidance, will be made aware when a young person moves to Cobden House of their change of placement or circumstance. A representative from school is always invited to attend a young person's statutory review, or any other meetings that support the young person's education in order to ensure we are working in partnership to ensure good outcomes in relation to their educational attainments.

If a young person arrives without a school place, we will work towards gaining a place within 20 days of coming to stay at Cobden House, this is in line with our education policy and also consistent with the Government Policy for Education of Children and Young People in Public Care (Promoting the Educational Achievement of Looked After Children, Statutory Guidance for Local Authorities).

Cobden House is not an education provider but has facility to provide onsite tuition support for children for a very short time, while working with virtual school to identify an educational provision. This will be in the form of online tuition via IXL and support via our education consultant and staff with liaison with the education providers.

Further, young people's rooms are equipped with all the necessary furnishings to facilitate studies for those who wish to do so away from the group. Accurate and up to date information will be maintained on file for each child or young person in respect of school reports; copy of the child or young person's PEP, any Individual Education Plan (IEPs) and/or any behaviour targets (such as PSPs) from school, Special Education Needs & Disability (SEND), education history, reports from external agencies that have worked with school(s) with clear information about the child's educational attainment, needs and aspirations. Information will also be kept to highlight any other support or additional input that the child is receiving from school such as if the child was identified as 'Gifted & Talented'.

The staff at Cobden House will act as educational advocates for the children & young people accommodated with us.

Transport arrangements may need to be made in order to facilitate this. Where necessary these matters will have been discussed at the 'pre- admission stage' and be incorporated into the child or young person's placement plan. When concerns about a child or young person's education arises; after they have been placed with us, we will contact the local authority's education support service (and the child or young person's placing authority) to take matters forward. Where beneficial to the child, staff at Cobden House will make links with a school's Designated LAC Teacher who has a statutory duty to ensure that there is effective partnership working with regards to the child or young person's educational requirements.

The child or young person will always be consulted about their PEP. Staff at Cobden House may enquire about matters such as any potential impact for the child or young person of changing school/provision, as any parent would do. In support of the child or young person, staff at Cobden House will also consider the following:

- Whether the child or young person's needs could be met by attending a particular school or provision.

In planning activities, children and young people's wish to take part or not will be respected, provided there are no underlying issues to be concerned about. Any such incidents will be recorded in the Cobden House logs. Activities will also be planned in line with individual child or young person's placement plan.

Children & young people will be supported to attend and engage in any religious and/or cultural interests identified in the placement plan. Staff will be proactive in assisting to maintain modes of dress, ceremony, diet and custom etc.

- Staff will provide transport to places of worship and meeting places.
- Staff will ensure that aspects of culture and religious heritage are not lost.
- Staff will facilitate the child or young person’s cultural or religious needs and help to make appropriate links.

Health

14. Details of any health care or therapy provided, including— (a) details of the qualifications and clinical supervision of the staff involved; (b) information about— (i) how the children’s home measures the effectiveness of its approach, the evidence demonstrating its effectiveness and (ii) details of how the information or evidence can be accessed.

Cobden House commissions the services of an Art Psychotherapist. This role is to provide regular support to staff working directly with the children and young people accommodated with us. For those who are experiencing emotional, behavioural or mental health difficulties, the Psychotherapist will provide leadership and consultant expertise in supporting their onward development. This would include advice to staff in relation to the individual profile of strengths and difficulties for each child or young person. To promote good practice in working together, existing information shared with the Registered Manager from assessments completed by other services may inform this process (e.g. Social Worker, SALT, Paed, CAMHS etc).

To involve the Psychotherapist with a child or young person, the Registered Manager will seek written consent from the responsible authority or a person with parental responsibility. Any child or young person placed with us can meet with a Psychotherapist individually to talk about issues that concern them. During their consultation with the Psychotherapist, they may be supported to identify positive ways forward. This may involve evidence-based therapeutic intervention. The Psychotherapist may consider it appropriate to meet with the parent(s) and/or social worker of the child or young person (where appropriate).

The Psychotherapist will contribute to the provision of quality care and service by “skilling up” staff at Cobden House. Essential in this process will be advice on working therapeutically with the child or young person. They will support the Registered Manager in ensuring that all risks are managed within the service in accordance with good practice, policies and procedures. In addition, they will support the Registered Manager in monitoring safeguarding matters and provide advice about onward referrals via the relevant social worker for each child or young person.

Additionally, Cobden House has access to consultant psychiatrist from our local CAMHS team should any of our residents require this service. Our management team have qualification and experience in mental health care and substance misuse management including within CAMHS.

In line with the Regulation, our Psychotherapist will have access to external supervision aligned to her professional training and codes.

Positive Relationships

15. The arrangements for promoting contact between children and their family and friends.

Children and young people at Cobden House will be encouraged to maintain appropriate, constructive contact with their families, friends and other people who play a significant role in their lives. This will be in line with contact arrangements specified in the child or young person's placement plan (in agreement with the social worker). All records of contact will be maintained and kept in the child or young person's file. Any restrictions on contact for the protection of the child (and others) will be made clear on admission. Contact by visits, telephone, e-mail and letter will be facilitated in cases where there are no such restrictions. The full postal address and contact number for Cobden House will be given to each child or young person on admission.

Any post will be given to the child or young person unopened unless instruction has been given by the placing authority to vet incoming mail. If there is any concern regarding the contents of mail received, this will be notified to the placing authority. Any subsequent changes in the arrangements for contact that are decided must be confirmed in writing by the placing authority (a telephone call is not sufficient authority).

Cobden House will comply with any restrictions on contact that may be imposed by the courts or the placing authority for the protection of the child or young person. Any unauthorised or restricted person shall be denied admission to the home and placing authority notified.

The placing authority will be notified if a child or young person is refusing contact or if it is observed that contact is causing distress to the child or young person and may be detrimental to their welfare. Staff will endeavour to find out from the young person the reasons for their distress.

The need for supervised contact should be identified at the pre- placement planning meeting stage. A decision should be made as to how and where this will take place. It is the responsibility of the placing authority to provide a venue and an appropriate adult to supervise the contact. Visits will be facilitated in the home where this is appropriate.

The placement plan will inform Cobden House staff who should be allowed to have private and unrestricted contact (and who should not). Staff at Cobden House will assist the child or young person by facilitating regular contact with professionals such as their social workers, independent guardians, other officers or advocates acting for the child (such as CAFCAS, NYAS, Ofsted or authorised Commissioning staff). If a request is made for staff (e.g. the key worker) to stay with the child or young person during contact, this will be granted if the staff ratio level permits this to happen. Identification will be required of all visitors before admittance to the home. Visitors, except parents, will remain downstairs and not go up to child or young person's bedrooms. Parents will be allowed up to the bedroom when the child/young person is first admitted to view the room, but on no occasion will staff allow visitors (other than parent or appropriate official ones e.g. inspectors) to be left alone.

Protection of Children

16. A description of the children's home's approach to the surveillance and monitoring of children accommodated there.

The only form of electronic surveillance which may use at Cobden House is if a young person is electronically tagged as part of a court-imposed sentence. In this instance the appropriate surveillance equipment will be installed at the unit and external professionals will have overall responsibility for this equipment.

There are occasions when a young person's risk assessment identifies issues with drug or alcohol misuse or self-harm. If staff need to enter a young person's bedroom to check on their safety or carry out a room check, this is recorded, and young people are always made aware.

Also, for the purpose of safeguarding and promoting the welfare of the child and young person concerned and other children or young people accommodated in the home, the management will use electronic monitoring provided the following conditions are met:

- The child's placing authority consents to the use of the measure in question.
- It is provided for in the child or young person's placement plan.
- So far as is practicable, considering their age and understanding, the child in question is informed in advance of the intention to use such monitoring measures.
- The measure is no more restrictive than necessary having regards to the child's privacy.

17. Details of the children’s home’s approach to behavioural support, including information about— (a) the children’s home’s approach to the use of restraint in relation to children and; (b) how persons working in the children’s home are trained in the use of restraint and how their competence is assessed.

At Jamores Homes we believe that behaviour management is most effective when built on good inter-personal relationships between adults and the young people. The home will be an environment where our children & young people can feel safe, cared for and where relationships are built on respect and understanding. The staff at Cobden House will maintain effective and clear professional boundaries. An important factor in this will be staff’s understanding and ability to be sensitive to each child or young person’s background and needs. Staff will maintain consistent, manageable boundaries for our children & young people with regards to behaviour management. Our staff will use approaches such as de-escalation and early intervention when dealing with behaviour management. Our staff team will receive training and accreditation to use the “TEAM TEACH” Physical Intervention model.

At Cobden House, the management team will continue to ensure that staff will have scheduled opportunities to share good practice in these matters. This will enable our staff team to de-brief, reflect, share ideas, learn from one another and discuss how things can be improved. As mentioned previously in Section 6, by giving our children & young people opportunities to be involved in the home’s running, the management team are seeking to promote a system of care and behaviour management that is transparent, consistently applied and effective.

The care and behaviour management in the home will be underpinned by positive environmental factors and healthy behaviours modelled by staff. Cobden House recognises that holds may be necessary in some circumstances as a last resort to manage challenging behaviours in the interests of our children & young people’s welfare and for the protection of others. Holding techniques will only be used where a risk assessment indicates that there is no other less intrusive method available to achieve the desired positive outcome, and where there is legal defence for the use of force.

Jamores Homes have detailed policies with clear guidance and procedures for staff to follow about this. Any such incidents will be recorded in our ‘physical restraint incident record book/Incident Log’, which will be kept on file.

At Cobden House we will use the “Team Teach” model as our organisational framework for behaviour management.

The “Team Teach” model will provide our organisation with a framework that reduces the need for high-risk, inconsistent, reactive interventions. The “Team Teach” model will support practice at Jamores Homes by:

- Preventing crises from occurring
- De-escalating potential crises
- Managing acute physical behaviours
- Reducing potential and actual injury to our children, young people and staff
- Teaching/modelling to our children and young people adaptive/coping skills
- Providing Jamores Homes with a behaviour management framework.
- Enabling Jamores Homes to be a reflective, learning organisation.

Should boundaries be breached in the home, staff have a system for assessing incidents and making professional judgments about the correct course of action that is most appropriate. The staff's response to inappropriate behaviours will be measured, contemporaneous and fair. Following any incidents, the child or young person will be helped to understand why the behaviour was unacceptable.

All parties with a legitimate interest in the welfare of the child or young person will be informed of any restraint used. All those involved in the situation will be offered a de-brief opportunity and the child or young person will be advised of their right to complain and to whom they can complain.

All Jamores Homes' staff will be made aware of and will sign to agree with the use of the non-permissible sanctions outlined in The Children's Homes Regulations 2001, Section 17(5). Staff will not use:

- (a) any form of corporal punishment.
- (b) any punishment relating to the consumption or deprivation of food or drink.
- (c) any restriction, other than one imposed by a court or in accordance with regulation 15, on—
  - (i) a child's contact with his parents, relatives or friends.
  - (ii) visits to him by his parents, relatives or friends.
  - (iii) a child's communications with any of the persons listed in regulation
  - (iv) his access to any telephone helpline providing counselling for children.
- (d) any requirement that a child wear distinctive or inappropriate clothes.
- (e) the use or withholding of medication or medical or dental treatment.
- (f) the intentional deprivation of sleep.
- (g) the imposition of any financial penalty, other than a requirement for the payment of a reasonable sum (which may be by instalments) by way of reparation.
- (h) any intimate physical examination of the child.
- (i) the withholding of any aids or equipment needed by a disabled child.
- (j) any measure which involves—
  - (i) any child in the imposition of any measure against any other child;
  - or

- (ii) the punishment of a group of children for the behaviour of an individual child.

Art Psychotherapist: Mona Khalajian

Art therapy is a form of psychotherapy that uses art media as its primary mode of expression and communication. Within this context, art is not used as a diagnostic tool but as a medium to address and explore emotional issues which may be confusing and distressing. Art therapy can help the service user explore interpersonal relationships, develop coping mechanisms, resilience and life skills. A wide range of materials are used such as paint, clay, paper Mache, chalk as well as play props such as Lego, puppets and sensory toys. Using a wide range of materials prompts an integrative approach to be adapted.

Mona Khalajian is a HCPC Registered Art Psychotherapist, who has a background of facilitating long-term and short-term therapy within multiple NHS settings (SLAM and WLMH), Private care and Charities including Place2be. In 2016 she was rewarded by The National Autistic Society for establishing The Sensory Art Therapeutic project which was published within the community newspaper. Mona Khalajian works with children, adolescents, adults and elderly people who have a wide range of difficulties, disabilities or diagnoses. These include emotional, behavioural or mental health problems, learning or physical disabilities, end of life, neurological conditions and physical illnesses.

Mona Khalajian facilitates individual and/or group Art therapy, depending on client's needs. It is not a recreational activity or an art lesson, although the sessions can be enjoyable. Clients do not need to have any previous experience or expertise in art and are prompted to freely explore the art materials and internal self. Her therapeutic approach is constructed through thinking within a psychodynamic frame and working person centred. Influencing theories within her approach are attachment-based theory, mindfulness strategies, compassion-focussed, mentalization-based and compassion-focused. The work is underpinned by professional therapeutic outcomes and is supported by independent professional supervision. Mona Khalajian provides a clinical record for organisation files and measuring progress of each session.

Art Psychotherapist: Christina Anderson

WHO AM I

Christina is a qualified Drama and Movement Therapist, fully registered with the Health and Care Professions Council (HCPC) as an Arts Psychotherapist as well as the British Association of Drama therapist (BADth). Christina is Visiting Lecturer at The Royal Central School of Speech and Drama and a Consultant Therapist at Frank Belford, looking at ways to explore challenges within the corporate industry, creating a unique approach using dramatherapy. Christina has also written a chapter in the book "Talk Yourself Better: A Confused Person's Guide to Therapy, Counselling and Self-Help".

MY WORK

Christina works with children, young people, adults and the elderly. Her work as a therapist is non-confrontational and client-led employing the language of symbols and metaphors through playing. Engaging in play is to experience the possibility of change, challenge and re-creation. By harnessing the client playfulness, it can be possible to help them return to an inner, possibly lost or damaged time. The work that I offer involves a variety of creative media including voice, storytelling/story making, drama activities based on imagination and spontaneity. I attempt to work both verbally and non-verbally with movement including safe and appropriate use of physical contact. For some people, using movement creatively helps expression which may not be known to them primarily through talking. I can see the value and flexibility to be able to work both with projected and personal play, giving the client the opportunity to explore his/her way to get started in the therapeutic process.

In the social construct of life, we use different tools to communicate, I aim to enable the client to connect with a range of emotional experiences that can be felt through different forms of human contact such as body language, metaphors stories and sounds. Overall, I have six years of diverse experience working with families and young people, aged between four and eighteen. Within the residential setting the work was with Looked After Children, these children were NEET at 16, had poor attendees at school they were vulnerable students, due to their experience with deprivation or Child Sexual Exploitation.

With a background of Sesame trained Drama and Movement therapy. The approach is based on theories of Carl Jung psychology of the unconscious, Rudolph Laban Art of Movement, Peter Slade work in children play and Marian Lindkvists non-verbal language of Movement-with-touch-and-sound. The core principle of the work is to stay with the inner symbol until its wisdom can be integrated and applied to making new healthy life choices.

I keep personal sessional notes for reflection and research, client clinical notes for organisation files of each session.

Arrangements for Supervision, Training and Development of Employees.

Supervision and appraisal is a vital part of supporting, managing and developing the staff team, it requires that staff receive and take active part in the supervision and appraisal process. As part of our commitment to deliver quality service and achieve positive outcomes for young people, Jamores Homes is committed to having in place a staff team with a balance of skills, knowledge and experience. Therefore, our approach to supporting learning and development will be holistic and personalized. Every member of staff will undergo proper induction in accordance with the home's probationary policy; of six months. The first six weeks of this will be spent focusing upon the induction programme, under the supervision of a senior staff member. Regular supervision will be provided during this initial six weeks, this will then progress to regular 6-8 weekly supervision for support staff. Once the staff member have been established and confirmed in post, in addition to regular supervision, their performance will be subject to regular and rigorous 12 monthly reviews in line with the organisational competencies framework, an integral part of this will be work plan/objectives for each individual worker. This ensures that performance and learning is kept under review. Informal advice and guidance will always be available as necessary. External professional supervision will be sought for the Psychologist and Teacher.

In relation to learning and development, staff record will include their learning and training history, that is, relevant training undertaken, with dates and provider; this will ensure effective monitoring of staff trainings and needs. This record will include mandatory and other training relevant to their roles, responsibilities and job function e.g.

21.If the staff working at the children’s home are all of one sex, or mainly of one sex, a description of how the children’s home promotes appropriate role models of both sexes.”

Both sexes are represented in the staff team at Cobden House, hence, promotes appropriate role models.

Care Planning

22. Any criteria used for the admission of children to the children’s home, including any policies and procedures for emergency admission.

At Cobden House, we operate on the premise that planned admissions is the preferred route for admission into care, as this affords valuable opportunities to consult, gather information, assess suitability and plan responsively to identified needs. However, subject to availability of vacant beds, in line with our commitment to positive and supportive partnership working with our stakeholders and our commitment to fair access and diversity; all referrals who meet our criteria as set out in this document will be, in exceptional circumstances offered a placement on an unplanned basis however, this decision will be based on the needs and risks presented by the child or young person in question, to ensure that such placement will not become disruptive to the children already accommodated in the home and that identified needs can be managed with a realistic prospect of achieving the desired placement outcomes. Factors such as, risk assessment and compatibility, as determined during our assessment process, will serve as key determinants in the Home's decision to accept or refuse emergency, short term and short break referrals.

At Cobden House, our staff team understand that admission into care regardless of the circumstances can and often provoke a great deal of anxiety in a child or young person. This is often the case in children being accommodated into care for the first time. While children come into "care" for different reasons, there is usually one common underlying element, namely: the decision usually follows a traumatic incident or experience in their lives, further in this vulnerable state the child or young person can feel guilty, abandoned, confused or lost.

With the understanding of the fact that new environment, expectation and routines can sometimes prove difficult, Cobden House believes that it is essential to provide good support to a child or young person throughout the entire admission process as this can help to reduce anxieties and fears and help establish a good platform from which staff can begin to work with them.

In view of this, our staff will be required to prepare as thoroughly as possible for the young person's admission; be open, warm and welcoming on arrival while being sensitive to any anxiety, wishes and aspirations of the young person.

Planned Admissions

Pre-Admission

All referrals for a placement will be subject to our referral and allocation policy. Referral will be made using our standard referral form. This will be considered by the Home manager and the Responsible Individual. Home Manager will liaise with referring Social Worker in order to gather more information on the child, including risk assessment, placement plan, medical history and other looked after children documentation. On the basis that placement suitability is not in question the child or young person will be allocated a key worker who will take the lead role in arranging meetings and initial visit with the responsible social worker, with support from a member of the management team as part of the pre admission process.

Prior to admission, a visit should be arranged for the child or young person, their relative and social worker to the home, to meet the staff and have a look around. The child or young person will be encouraged to express any wish or desire they may have with respect to coming to live at Cobden House. This meeting will be arranged to ensure the allocated key worker is present to meet the young person. A move-in date will be set following this visit. Where possible, a young person will be given the opportunity to choose which of the bedrooms they want to take up. The room will then be made ready prior to their move-in date.

A further date will be identified for a formal planning meeting where it is our expectation that all professionals who are likely to be involved in delivering or implementing the child or young person's placement/care plan are present, together with parents/carers and any significant others.

Admission

On the day of admission, the key worker or a designated staff member will be assigned to welcome and care for the child on that day. The key worker will orientate the child, parents and family around the home and introduce them to the staff and other young people. When showing them around the home they will be given practical information such as the location of the toilets, bathrooms, phone, fire exits etc. An inventory of the young person's belongings will also be made, a copy signed and dated by the child and their key worker will be kept in young person's personal file. After the family have left, the key worker and staff should be sensitive and support the child or young person to understand and manage the way they may be feeling.

Emergency Admissions

Cobden House does expect that emergency placements may occur, and consideration will be given to such requests made by Social Workers and Access to Resources team. In such cases, the referring social worker will ensure that prior to a child or young person coming into the Home, all of the required documentation is received. An interim care plan will be prepared following a discussion with the Social Worker, with the presenting needs having been outlined. Cobden House will carry out its own risk assessment based upon the information received. The social worker will be advised of the need to convene a within 72 hours of admission.

CORONAVIRUS (COVID-19) OUTBREAK POLICY STATEMENT

UPDATE 17.03.2020

This statement has been put out due to the latest Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic and aims to clarify Jamores Homes' position. It is important to note that the developments and government guidance regarding this outbreak changes regularly, sometimes, daily and Jamores Homes will ensure that we are updated as and when developments occur.

Firstly, I would like to note that it is business as normal at Jamores Homes. There have been no confirmed outbreaks for the children in our homes, the adults working at the homes or any close family liaisons.

It is also important to note that the Covid-19 virus does not currently present as a high risk to children.

We have implemented the following in order to ensure that everyone works in the best way possible:

- All employees have been provided with clear information and instruction in relation to the Coronavirus (COVID-19) outbreak.
- All children have been informed through the house meeting / direct work about Coronavirus, its effects, as well as how to minimise risks of contamination.
- An additional risk management plan has been created for each home.
- Each child should have a corona virus risk assessment as part of their care document.
- Additional hand sanitiser and hand washing products are made available in each home at all wash stations (bathrooms, toilets, kitchen, utility areas etc).
- All staff have been contacted for declaration of any pre-existing conditions in relation to respiratory conditions.
- Contact has been made with the staffing agencies (only used in emergency) to confirm their action plans in relation to risk management once on our premises. They have confirmed that they have made checks with all their staff in relation to the Coronavirus and any issues will be shared immediately where necessary.
- A management planning meeting has been held in order to ensure that these actions are fully implemented.
- An agreed response plan has been created following the Business Continuity Plan / Disaster Plan process, should there be a confirmed case of Coronavirus (COVID-19) in any home.
- Employees at Jamores Homes have been fully updated in relation to reporting, effects on the service as well as an agreed pay process for anyone who must self-isolate as recommended by Public Health England.

- We have reduced all non-essential contact and visits to our homes to further protect staff and children.

I hope that the above clarifies how Jamores Homes are dealing with this matter, however, should you have any further queries, please do not hesitate to contact me us 07939 567498.
