Beginner

Kolding Cup introduces a new category for beginners. The beginner category is for boys and girls age 7-12 years, who have been wrestling for less than one year and have limited experience in competitions like Kolding Cup.

Participants in the beginner category are weighed in as normal and divided into appropriate weight classes with 3-5 wrestlers in each group.

Rules are like normal with the following exceptions:

- Greco-Roman style unless two girls, then free style
- The match can't be won by fall. The performing wrestler collects a point, and both wrestlers are called to standing position
- Technical fall is achieved at 10 excessive points
