COMMUNITY ORGANIZING IN LIBRARIES

LAUREN COMITO

WHAT IS COMMUNITY ORGANIZING?

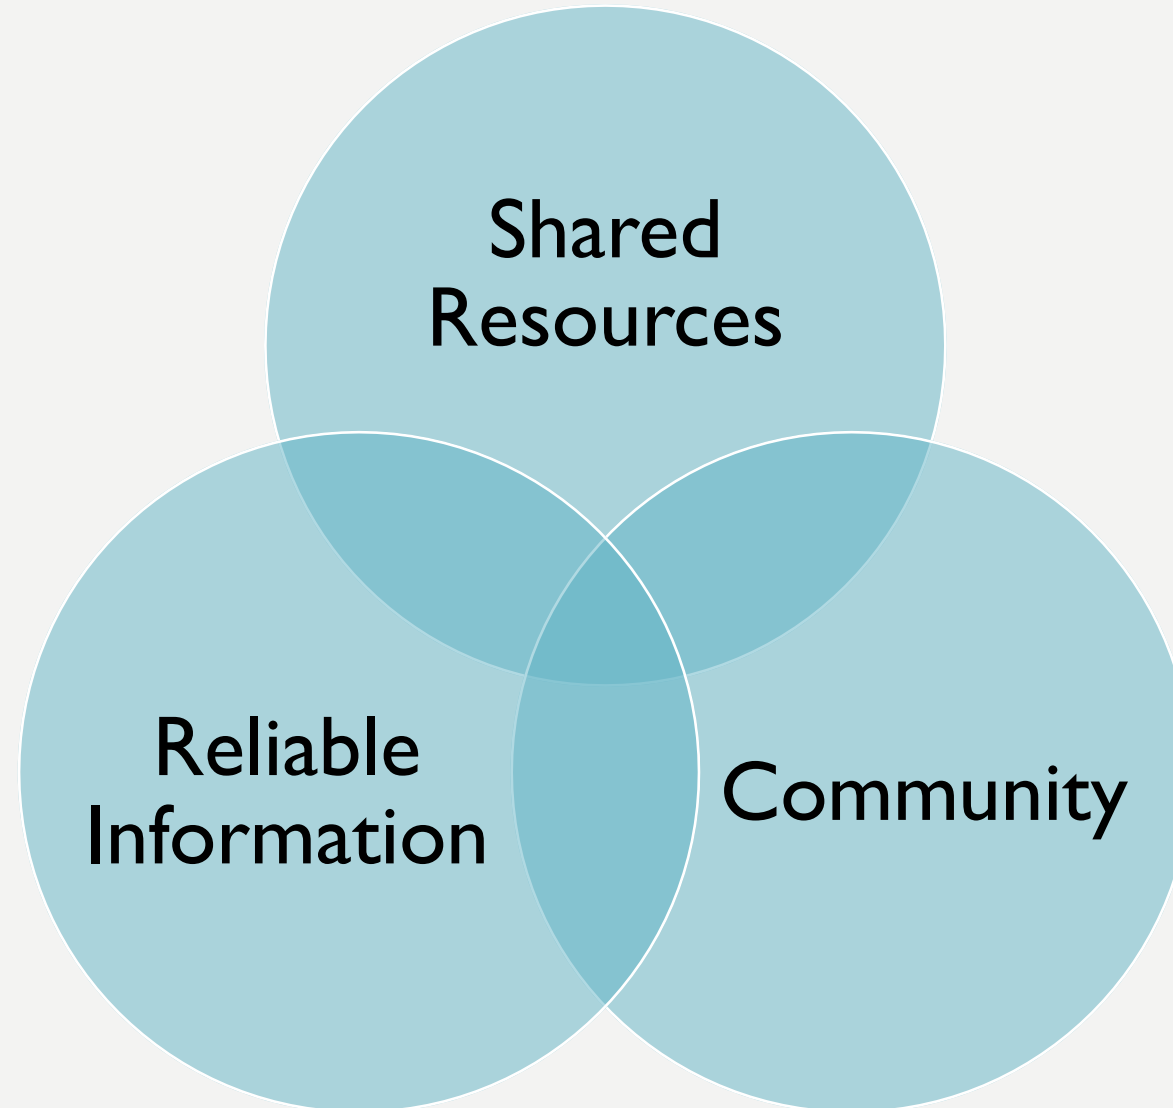

COMMUNITY ORGANIZING

Noun

the coordination of cooperative efforts and campaigning carried out by local residents to build collective power in order to promote the interests of their community.

”tenants in the tenant’s association are now empowered to demand heat and hot water in the winter through community organizing”

WHY LIBRARIES?

HOW DO WE APPLY THIS IN LIBRARIES?

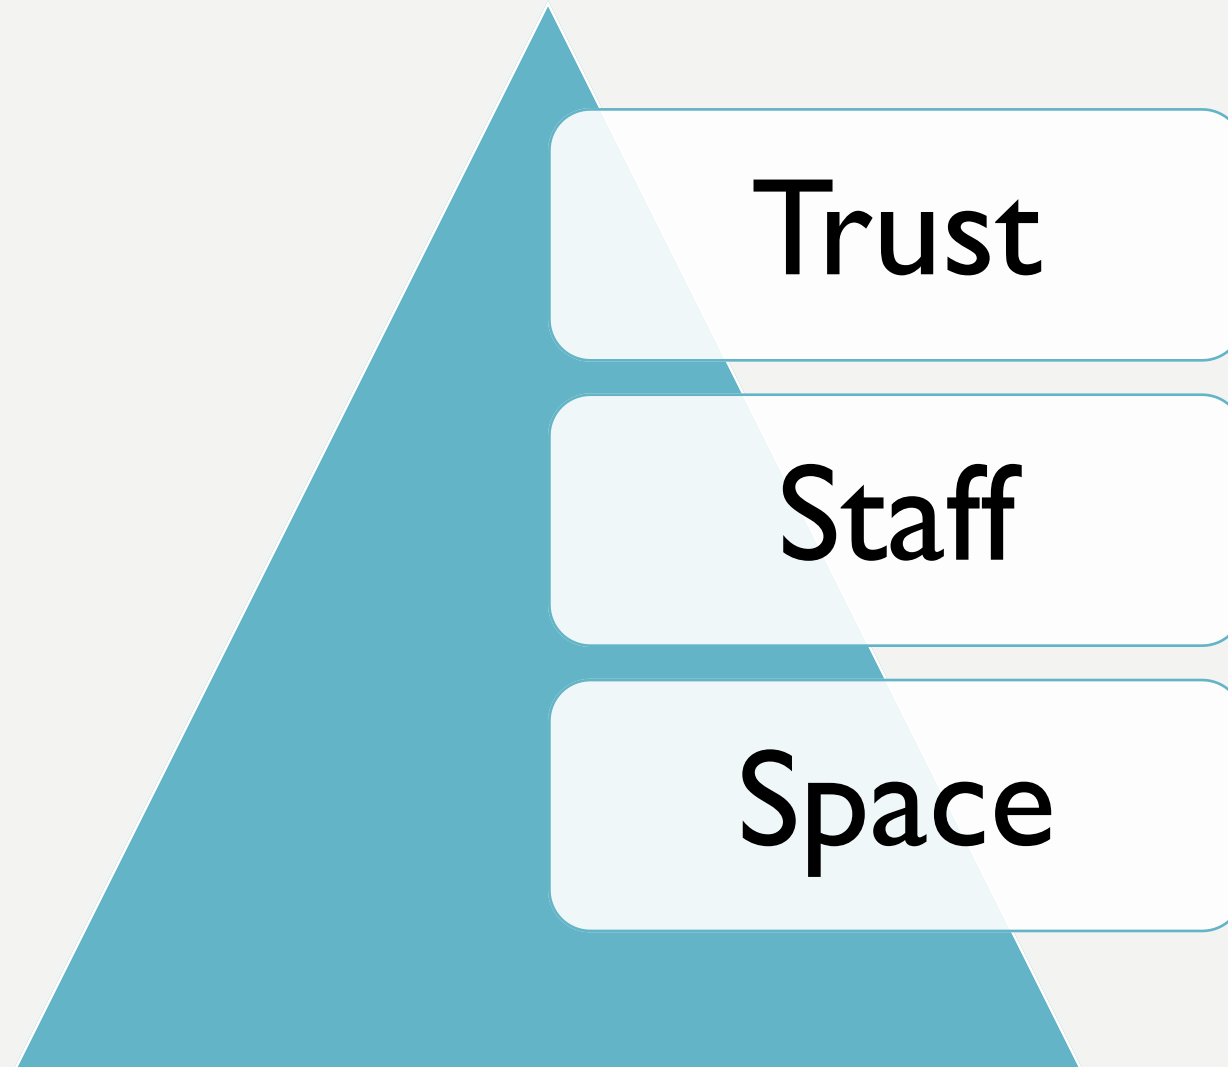

FRAMING THE PROBLEM

HOW TO FRAME THE PROBLEM

To frame a problem, you should begin by asking these questions:

- What is the issue?
- Who is involved?
- What contributing factors have created the problem?
- What resources do you have that can contribute to the solution?
