

MULTI-TALENTED TEEN AUTHOR, CALEB LIKAMBI, FROM LIVERPOOL RELEASES SIXTH BOOK IN HIS LIFE LESSONS SERIES

"Always surround yourself with people who inspire you to be great, but most importantly, be that person who inspires others to be great." Caleb Likambi

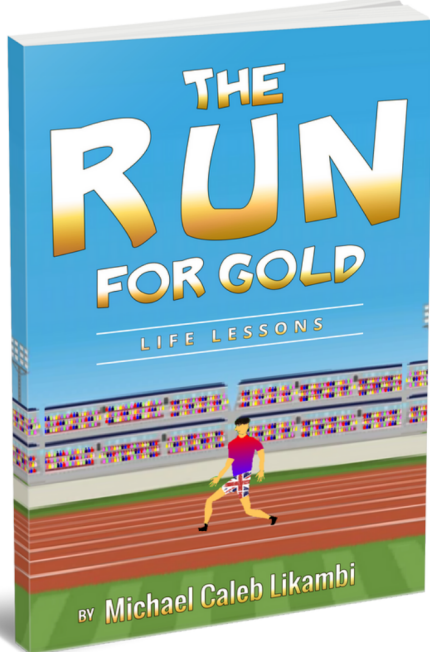

Liverpool – Multi-talented and gifted 13-year-old best-selling author from Merchant Taylors' Boys' School, Crosby, Liverpool, Michael Caleb Likambi, is set to release his highly anticipated sixth book, "The Run For Gold," on the 24th of November 2023. Caleb Likambi, who made his debut as an author at the age of 12 with his best-selling book, "Tammy and the Shipwreck," followed by four other books within months, has quickly gained recognition for his captivating stories and insightful life lessons.

Caleb's passion for storytelling and his commitment to providing valuable life lessons through his books is evident in his prolific output and dedication to his craft. In an impressive display of creativity and dedication, Caleb, now an experienced writer, wrote and illustrated 10 new books in his life lesson series within just one month in August 2023. These upcoming releases will be available to readers early next year, after the publication of his sixth book.

As a member of a family of talented young writers and authors, Caleb's writing journey was inspired by his younger sister, Destiny Likambi, a child prodigy and the world's youngest author to publish multiple books within months. Since then, he has been on a writing spree, consistently putting out well-received books. His passion for storytelling and determination to inspire others has driven him to produce new works at an impressive pace. Drawing on his own experiences and lessons learned, as well as the influence and support of his family, Caleb continues to create stories that touch the hearts and minds of his readers.

With his latest series, Caleb aims to provide valuable life lessons through engaging stories and relatable characters. As a young author, Caleb has shown remarkable talent and creativity. His ability to write and illustrate his books showcases his multifaceted skills and his dedication to honing his craft.

The upcoming release of a new book demonstrates Caleb's dedication to his craft and his ability to consistently produce quality work. His stories are not only entertaining but also serve as teaching tools, helping young readers learn important life lessons in an engaging and relatable manner. Young readers can look forward to lessons on friendship, perseverance, self-discipline, success, and self-confidence, among others.

ABOUT THE BOOK: THE RUN FOR GOLD

In this exciting new book, 13-year-old Caleb Likambi takes readers on an exhilarating journey as the main character embarks on a pursuit for greatness and personal growth. Filled with adventure, challenges, and inspiring moments, "The Run For Gold" is sure to resonate with readers of all ages.

"Once upon a time, there was a fat boy called Gordon"...

Come along on an inspiring journey with a young and bright boy named Gordon. Filled to the brim with talent and aspiration, Gordon's golden dream is to be an Olympic champion.

However, throughout his journey, he unfortunately faces bullying, problems and constant cruelty shown towards him due to his weight...

Do you believe that Gordon will run for his gold and chase his dreams? Or will doubt and negativity ambush his vision?...

ABOUT THE AUTHOR: MICHAEL CALEB LIKAMBI

"Reading is such fun. It has the power to expand your imagination and to take you into different parts and cultures of the world at the same time." Caleb Likambi

"You must never give up on your dreams, no matter what."
Caleb Likambi

Coming from a family of talented young writers, Michael Caleb Likambi debuted as an author at the age of 12 with his best-selling book, Tammy and the Shipwreck, and in less than a year, he published five books. In August 2023, wrote and illustrated 10 new books which will be released early next year. The release of these 10 new books is a testament to Caleb's talent and passion for storytelling.

Caleb is an ultra-confident and grounded young man, whose kind, compassionate, and humble personality makes him a true friend to many. He always stands up for those who are bullied or mistreated, and he is fondly referred to as the "soft giant." He is a positive role model for children and young people all across the globe.

He has been the Head Boy at his secondary school for two consecutive years and has been on the School Council numerous times throughout his time in primary school. He is also a gifted and natural sportsman, who has won numerous trophies and awards, both as an individual and for his primary and secondary schools.

Caleb's genuine passion for reading and learning is second to none, which goes back to his childhood when he would read until he fell asleep. He's read over 700 books to date and never stops requesting new books. He has been interviewed by and featured on diverse media platforms, including BBC Radio Merseyside and the Liverpool Echo. Caleb's dedication to sharing his love of reading and writing extends beyond his own books. Together with his siblings, he actively advocates for literacy and education, speaking in schools, libraries, and events and working to make diverse children books accessible to children from all backgrounds. Through his donations to schools and libraries, Caleb hopes to inspire young readers to discover the joy and transformative power of reading.

The release of "The Run For Gold" on the 24th of November 2023 is highly anticipated by fans of Caleb's previous works. Readers of all ages can look forward to another exciting adventure filled with important life lessons that will leave a lasting impact.

For more information about Michael Caleb Likambi and his upcoming book release, please visit his website at www.likambiglobalpublishing.com Media Contact: Dr. Sylvia Forchop-Likambi, Co-Founder Likambi Global Publishing, Email: enquiries@likambiglobalpublishing.com, Mobile: +44 (0) 7539216072