Additional Information: The route of this walk, which offers beautiful scenery over the Rhandirmwyn mountains, will partly follow the upper reaches of the River Towy and will also take us through some forestry. Please note that the grading given above is only due to one particularly steep and challenging climb through the woods very early on in the walk - other than that the walk is easily manageable!

Directions to the start of the walk and the lay-by where we will park:

- Take the A40 to Llandovery
- On entering the town and after the railway crossing, take the first LEFT onto New Road (A483)
- Follow this road for 0.25 miles and turn LEFT onto Cilycwm Road
- From this junction, the parking place is exactly 9 miles away along the road without deviations or turnings

The lay-by where we will park will take 10 cars - What3Words:
