

EVENTS MENU

Below you can read about different examples of our events which we would be happy to organize for you and your company. We want the events to inspire, challenge, discover and reflect.

Enjoy the pictures and our examples, what shall we start with?

Maybe with a clear goal? Start to reflect on how strong effect you want with your next event!

Events oriented towards education and meetings when there is a need for consensus

Conference & Event

Have your next conference or event in Italy. You chose the location and we will make sure it is exactly as you want it. We cooperate with several different locations and can help you combine your conference with exciting activities like cooking or sports or whatever you are interested in. Are you planning the Christmas or Summer party?

Leadership development.

Does your management team work in harmony? Do you need to improve the communication? Do you reach the goals you have defined? A management group needs constant development to improve the common efficiency and to reach the set goals. Welcome to our trainings for management teams, where we combine workshops with individual coaching.

Utbildning

We believe education is exercise and we know that the more you exercise and reflect about your performance, the more successful we become. We support development both individually and in group.

Sales training

Most companies invest in sales trainings to improve the efficiency of selling with the sales co/workers. An investment that needs to be done regularly to motivate and develop this important group within the company. Why not participate in one of our sales trainings in Italy? Maybe In combination with an interesting fair?

Exhibitions and Fairs

Throughout Italy most kinds of exhibitions and fairs can be found, the 'Salone del Mobile' furniture fair in Milano, VinItaly in Verona, 'Pitti' textile and fashion exhibitions in Florence are just some examples. Are you curious to visit one, we help you with the program and why not combine with a training for the group?

Why not organize the company party in Italy? The food is fantastic, as well as the climate and the surroundings. We can organize the party the way you wish.

Event that are oriented towards activities and sports for those who wants to move

Bike tours

Our experienced cycle experts will take you on our bike tours wherever you want in the country. Toscana is a loved travel destination for cyclists, but why not bike in Piemonte, around the mountains outside Rome, the Garda lake or on Sicily? Mix the exercise with experiences and enjoy our beautiful country.

Yoga

We have contacts all over Italy who can give you the yoga experience you are looking for. Yoga exercises both the body and mind and suits perfectly to the beautiful nature of Italy. We have a choice of different yoga instructors to meet your specific need. Yoga is a good and different activity that can be well combined with a conference or kick off meeting.

Golf trips

Italy has green golf courses all around the year and the climate is most of the time suitable to play golf. There are many golf courses available around the country and you do not need to travel far from the airports to have a wonderful golf experience.

Soccer trips

Do you want to come to Italy to practice or look at soccer? Take the opportunity to see an Italian soccer team practice or play.

Hiking

High mountains and deep valleys or maybe you prefer to hike on flat ground. Italy has everything. The mountains in the Dolomites or the coast of Amalfi's with fantastic slopes by the sea. Italy gives you the surroundings you need, and we offer experts within the area.

Which kind of exercise are you after? Everyone has different preferences and attitude to exercise. The most important is to do something that feels both good and fun. Tell us more and we will find the activity and location that fits you.

Painting course

Have you always dreamt about being able to paint, but never really managed? Maybe you already paint but want to become better? Why not chose the beautiful surroundings of Italy?

The soft hills of Tuscany with wine yards and cypresses, Abruzzo and Marches beautiful mountains, the cultural highlights of Rome, Sicily's mountains or the fantastic slopes to by the sea at the Amalfi coast?

Writing course

Do you dream about writing a book? Maybe a detective story, a biography or a fairy tale for children or grandchildren? We organize writing courses at different places across Italy.

Here you can spend days in peace and improve your writing, get structure on the narrative and reach the closure in a good way. A writing pedagogue and coach will show you the way to write the novel of your life.

Music camp

In Italy we can help you combine a music camp and leisure. What about a Voice coach that helps you use your voice in a strong and personal way? Or try out different instruments with your group to find a common rhythm.

We make sure that both adults and children get the most of their stay here.

To learn something new is the wish of many but often we postpone our dreams into the future. Take charge of your dream and make it a reality! We are here to help you plan and organise to make it a fun and special experience independently of what you are looking for.

Event that are oriented on food and culture for those who loves to taste

Food trips

The Italian kitchen is fantastic. But, there is nothing that can be called Italian food. Every dish comes from different regions. Come with us to the mountains outside Rome and taste the real “cacio e pepe” or join us on truffle hunt in Umbria.

Do you want to learn to make a “Pasta Bolognese” with a real recipe from Bologna, a “Pasta all ‘Amatriciana” from Amatrice or “Melanzane alla Parmigiana” from Parma? We know Italian cooking and are happy to teach you.

Culture trips

Italy can offer extremely much when it comes to culture and history. Why not land in Rome, Milano or Florence and let us show you the city and then continue towards other destinations?

Italy has so many beautiful cities and villages to visit and Tuscany is one of the most fascinating ones. The surroundings offer a wide choice of activities and experiences.

Wine tasting

In Italy, every region produces fantastic wines. You can there for chose which region you like the most and we promise you an experience you will never forget.

Take the chance and test yourself through the Italian good wines in combination with excellent food and surroundings.
