

Biography

Lyricist, Singer-Songwriter, FeMCee, 'Spokenword' BEFFTA Award Winner 2014, Performance Poet, Author and Artist-Tutor
LyricL, is a jubilant, exultant performer, whose animated fresh style exudes joy, in a euphoric and beautiful way!

Born in London to Nigerian parents, LyricL's early and enduring musical influences came from home. A drummer/DJ Daddy, who "loved African Jazz, Gospel and High Life, entertained with chest-tap percussion, beatbox and skillfully played his hands as wind instruments, as Mommy dances and sings in her own key of happiness to this very day.

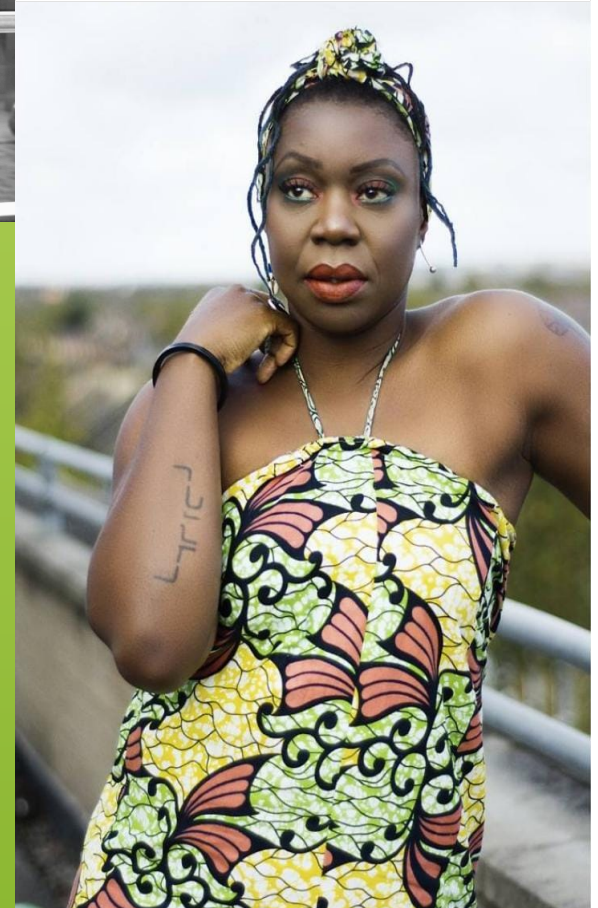

North Sea Jazz Rotterdam, StreetFest London, Wilderness Festival & Southport Weekender (UK), Sabolai Music Festival Ghana and the Toronto Jazz Festival, have embraced her creative works.

An eclectic catalogue that spans Hip-Hop, House, Jazz through to Afro & Broken Beat with a soulful edge, stirring grooves enhanced by her lyricism & Spokenword.

Support act to Patrice Rushen, The Roots, Omar, Incognito, Big Daddy Kane, Black Thought, DJ Jazzy Jeff & Jill Scott, LyricL is an often sought after keen creative ally.

Lighting up mics & stages with her performances, LyricL has been fortunate to both tour & record with a range of talented musicians & producers; MJ Cole (UK) Nathan Haines (NZ) KiloBeats & David Oscar (Accra, Ghana), Roots Soul/Kyoto Jazz Massive (Japan), ReeKee (Italy), Soul Parlour (Munich), KidFonq (SA) & Guerrilla Science (Toronto).

LyricL: Enrichment Facilitator, Artist-Tutor & Learning Mentor Practitioner of Art Therapy, through 'Music-Word Art,' Lyricism and Spokenword Poetry.

"As an advocate for change empowerment wellbeing and wellness, I have taken time out to learn more about how to heal help and gracefully guide both myself and others throughout performance poetry, spoken-word and music, as I understand first-hand how representation matters through art culture and life, and that in order to see it you must be it and consequently dedicated years to this art, as I believe this opportunity is the perfect way to be amongst likeminded innovative inspirational individuals, who understand experientially that art is subjective, objective and imperative.

Fortunate to travel teach and perform using my skill sets and am currently finalizing a new initiative pertaining to Community Arts & Ethnographic Practice, since successfully completing my Post Graduate Diploma in Applied Anthropology and Community Arts at Goldsmiths University. London."

Highly motivated former/current National League basketball player, runner in the England Athletics Affiliated group Black Girls Do Run UK and wellness advocate.

An energetic and sociable individual, using my 'Creative Writing, Rap & Spoken-word' experience as an Artist-Tutor for young people in London and the UK. I am an experienced SEND LSA, published author and recording artist professional, Workshop Practitioner and Performance Poet, with I strong desire to build on my skills and succeed.

I have confidence am an excellent communicator, possess great interpersonal skills, empathic and work extremely well under pressure.

I pride myself on being highly creative, organized, analytical and able to get the very best out of people. I embrace responsibilities and challenges, adapt easily to new situations and work well both independently and as part of a team producing outstanding creative collaborative works worldwide.
