Danish Forum for Microfinance arranges webinar about Savings Groups and Fintech

13 April 9.30-12 on zoom

Digitalization is everywhere, and Africa is no exception. Digitalization and FinTech present new opportunities for reaching remote areas, including providing financial services to the poorest but also risks of excluding the less digital literate. How can the social structures and qualities of savings still be kept in a digital age? This webinar presents different solutions to digitalising VSLA's and discuss how these might further financial inclusion of marginalised communities. Join us for this exciting webinar and meet:
