Domino (Days of grace) Generation on sale No one dares to do a bidding Grinding faces in the zone Gazes pierce through flesh and bone These are the sages of the scheme Taking chances Reckless selling dreamfairs Slather Island loveaffairs So you know of my intentions Care to go, beyond imagination The descending on screen Accusations fill the scene And causation load his gun Played ain't we all Played ain't we all Free fall Elevation seem Tenacious As we set the alternation of generations. Temptaion saturates through All creation As we're dancing on the edge of declination Days of grace are over now Days of grace are over now Days of grace are over now As smoke and dust aclear Vulchers in the air Scapegoats on the ledge to calm the fear Lies aflow Friend be-foe Stones athrown Oh domino Stained ain't we all Hear the stained calling Free fall Elevation seem Tenacious A's we're chasing down the Dream in full Sedation Big Ovation for the faces of creation As they're dancing on the dreams of generations Days of grace are over now Days of grace are over now Days of grace are over now

Traces Get a room Come aloud Generate the sense you've crowned Leave no doubt Unbowed Cry you're lost and found Knock down.Come and get the best of me My cher-okee. Let's play Love without restrain Say you want to Play me, make a mess of me The game is on, the pain is on me Don't expect to go all rounds the way you play me Come on, Knock me out And leave no doubt What's coming to me Just don't ever stop the count - now. As you lay Disarray From this sharade You hear the sound Creaky sound The Voice that got you Down Still you crave The heart atamed. Catch flame. Calling out her name Calling again Something stirs in mé Heaven weighing down on me Loosing gravity Agony Never let me go Play me, make a mess of me The game is on, the pain is on me Don't expect to go all rounds the way you play me Come on, Knock me out And leave no doubt What's coming to me Just don't ever stop the count - now. Lay your traces on me Lay your traces on me Lay your traces on me Trace still warm, but you're gone Senses all calling out now

My own worst enemy Can't say i'm your remedy To put you right When you're wrong But i'm part of your melody Your gravitysong Your senses shiver now The shades are coming down Another selffloating saturday To stay on the run My own, my own worst enemy My own, my own worst enemy Cheating on your soul When you're cheating on your soul, cheater now Cheating on your soul When you're cheating on your soul, cheater now I know all of your weaknesses Correct me now if i'm wrong And i hear all of Them preachers The sanity song Your mind gives promises about to come undone No wonder this potatohead, is crackingly gone My own, my own worst enemy My own, my own worst enemy Share it away let go ohohoh Share it away Share it away, sinner

Following the rain Following the rain Wollow in the pain Seems all i've done is let you know Now it's cold You've really gone away Seem such a rached calling And awaking long before dawn Hearts slipped and love has gone astray So cold So cold Following the rain Wollow in the pain See it now, feel it now Fear of something to take everything in doubt See it now, feel it now Fell hard, fell deep so fearlessly Felt so free, but gravity got the best of me Thought i saw you falling beside But now i see It was darkness smiling back at me Following the rain Wollow in the pain Following the rain Wollow in the pain Following the rain Wollow in the pain See it now, feel it now Fear of something to take everything in doubt See it now, feel it now Oh oh oh oh oh oh oh

The Century game Seem to Call in All of Them angels See Them pierce through all Aberration Eloquent discourse and prases When the gentry's out on patrol Seem to Call in All of Them angels The voices of grandeur Is upon your saveour Let your mind sink deep into me now, forever and again You stray beyond your leach yeah Disengage your pride and valour Your act is over now Your ass is owned by now Your act is over now See your act is falling around The voices of grandeur Is upon your saveour Let your mind sink deep into mé now, forever and again Saw Them angels keep falling I'm making amends for the deals that we made Saw Them angels keep falling I'm breaking away from the sense that remained Saw Them angels keep falling I'm changing it back to the century game

Intelligent design I know you Think that i never knew Of Your infinite thirst for a better view But i myself laid the seed in you To gather the pieces and start anew But You threw it away Forgot how to pray Trying to right what i did wrong How could you say I abandoned you When i carried you through when the colour bleu You always run when i'm crying stay Guess you never listen to me anyway Well i dealt with the pain I sought out the stain You made a believer out of me again You were always on my mind - time to show that i Care for you My intelligent design - time to show what you never knew

Sanctuary Senses awake - you're alone Empty gazes penetrate - you're alone Changes suck you in - you're alone Safety rages and cages Seem to arise the price for your eyes In a glimpse you're disowned Seem to arise the price for your eyes In a flinch you're alone Shelter me - say belong Venture me - soothe me over Sanctuary never felt so alone - soothe mé over Reach, i'm here - so alone Endless Days to feel so alone Caught defenceless - face you're alone Strangers wave you on - embrace you now Strangers teaching out - to brace you now Safe within these walls - estrange you now Years of chains and stall - awaits you now Senses awake, Wake in restrainers - engaged so alone Faces, lidless, rage in your veins - where you roam Breathless, casing closing in - to the bone Restless chasing endless, Theres no escape you're alone Seem to arise the price for your eyes In a glimpse you're disowned Seem to arise the price for your eyes In a flinch you're alone Shelter me - say belong Venture me - soothe mé over Sanctuary never felt so alone - soothe me over How did we get so estranged now Caught on the isle of sand The Dream that you roam have walls But walls Can come to a Fall

Even now (Sound of the Real) Even now somethings forever, sound of the real Even now All my endeavour follow the wheel Since you can't i'm letting you go Even now somethings forever, rage of the real Even now be Will we ever, cage of the real Even now somethings forever - face of the real Demon's out, Mé for the devour - taste of the real Since you can't i'm letting you go Since you can't i'm letting you go Letting you go letting you go There's a strain sustained in you Tears the song you rage Sentiment Overload Sickens where you lay It's in the past It's in the room Come around Back to haunt you once again The rage is in the blood The trace is in the mud Takes the aim I'm tumbling once again Try to run From what's become Dazed you roam Can't Block the sun Clinging on The soothing stain That Feast on these remains The numb worse than the pain Find you chase what you escaped Which sends you on A forever on the run Forever on the run (On the run Face the dawn Face the winds that blew you on Chase the pain Don't Break the chain Life will pull you back again The outside's creeping in Try to soothe you from withinn Face the Sun But warmth is gone Forever on the run) Since you can't - i Break the Bond You can't accelerate, as long the drogue is on You can't regenerate, as long the drogue is on You shall degenerate, as long the drogue is on But you can generate the father in the son To find that you might be the one to overcome

Run Stay on the run Venture the one you've become Turning it over Run stay on the run Chasing the blaze of the sun Making you over Time Tell me you'll breathe again Tell me you'll dream again Don't leave me now Forever won't you hear me in the dark Changing now Chasing now Facing now Just turn around and see me now Just turn around and free me now Run Stay on the run Venture the one you've become Turning it over Run stay on the run Chasing the blaze of the sun Making you over Run Little heart run with me Little heart stray with me Perceive me now Don't you see me changing in the dark Fading now Failing now Peiled and unsheathed Don't leave me hanging round These rags fit nomore Feel so wrong tonight So run Run with me Chance these shreds of reverie Won't you run with me Chance these shreds of reverie Run Stay on the run Venture the one you've become Turning it over Run stay on the run Chasing the blaze of the sun Making you over

Dawning Dawning of day Melts away Come on rage me now Fear of the rays putting blue in your eyes

No time for doubt Great devour Squeel as the pace Accellerates Try to grasp but still the claiming choice remain Breaching your defenses Open now, but you know you Can fake it Blinds you now

All your escapes Your change of shape Running for or from your life evaporates Come on now Serve me now A luscious sky is dawning - the view is blowing you away A World inside is dawning - the view is blowing you away

Caught in your ways Caught in your ways Void is arage With all senses ablaze You loose the now Caught in your ways Your embrace shiver now Caught in a Maze See you trace wither now Caught in your ways Craving the chains You can't live with the rage But you're lost without Caught in your ways Your embrace shiver now Caught in a Maze See you trace wither now Caught in your ways Your embrace shiver now Caught in a Maze See your face shimmer now River now, Mirror how I break Let the waves dissolve this sorrow River now, Mirror how I break Let the pieces find tomorrow
