About ESLA

ESLA, the European Speech and Language Therapy Association, is a pan-European umbrella organisation that includes 30 member associations across 27 countries, representing over 50,000 European speech and language therapy professionals. ESLA was previously known as CPLQL.

About ESLA Congress

Speech therapists globally strive to improve the quality of life for patients, as well as their parents and partners, by providing them with a fundamental aspect of humanity: communication. Aphasia, language disorders, speech disorders, voice disorders, and swallowing disorders, among others, impact the quality of life of individuals.

EVENT LOCATION

BRUGES, BELGIUM

The city of Bruges is recognized for its well-preserved medieval architecture and historic city center, which has been designated as a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

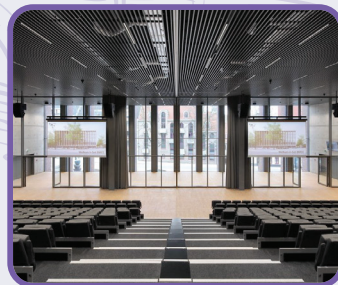

The city's rich history can be seen around every corner, from the impressive Belfry Tower that rises imposingly in the center of the square, to the grand Gothic-style buildings that stretch along the impressive canals, which has led to the city being called the 'Venice of the North'.
