LOFTUS AC's lady athletes have been flying the flag for their club with results that get better by the week.

At the National Veterans 10k road race championships, on a far from easy course in Barnsley, Linda Watson achieved a magnificent third place with a time of 39.21 in the 45 to 49 age category.

Following Watson home was Kath Kennedy, who improves her times on a weekly basis, in 47.31, and Sheila Fletcher in 52.00.

For both their times were personal bests for the distance.

A week earlier they had competed in the Rowntrees 10-mile road race in York with Fletcher clocking 87.54 and Kennedy 77.30 - both again personal bests.

● THE second Langbaurgh Marathon takes place this Sunday with the start and finish at Kirkleatham Museum.

Spearheading the local challenge will be John Hunter and Steve Normandale with both runners preparing well for the race and hoping to make a big impact.

● WITH entries now approaching the 600 mark there is every indication that the BUPA Loftus Poultry Run, one of the most popular festive events in the country, will again be oversubscribed.

Would-be runners are requested not to delay with their entries for the 19 December run with a strict limit of 850 runners.

The Whitby Gazette will be the first with the news of runners taking part in the race and anyone entered who feels that their participation will be of interest should contact the Sports Editor or the race secretary at 30 Cromwell Avenue, Loftus.
