

To whom it may concern,

Yingli Energy Development Co., Ltd., a corporation duly organized and existing under the laws of Peoples Republic of China, with its registered business address located at No.3399 Chaoyang North Road, Baoding, China ("Yingli").

Yingli abides by the anti-slavery laws and regulations of every region under its jurisdiction, and commits to ensuring that modern slavery does not occur anywhere in its business, including through its supply chain. And also, Yingli will never and ever tolerate modern slavery, forced labor and human trafficking, and is committed to upholding these principles, including our own employees, recruitment practices and workplace operations, as well as workers throughout our supply chain. Yingli has an industry-leading good record in workplace practice and social responsibility since 1998. At Yingli, we comply with the international labor rights standards and regulations, including not involving any illegal employment, child labor and forced labor. We are committed to ensuring that there is no modern slavery or human trafficking in our supply chains or in any part of our business.

Yingli expects and requires its third-party supplier, contractors and other business partners to similarly act to prevent modern slavery. As part of its contracting process, Yingli communicates this Policy to all of its third-party suppliers, contractors and other business partners, and requires compliance with anti-slavery laws and regulations. Yingli expects its business partners to share its strong commitment to combatting modern slavery and to conduct its business accordingly.

When cooperating with our suppliers and business partners, Yingli has always observed high ethical and business standards, carried out fair operations, protected legitimate rights and interests of suppliers, supported their growth and taken the lead in driving suppliers to fulfil their social responsibilities. Yingli is fully committed to conduct its business in a lawful and ethical manner, including cooperating with suppliers who also respect human rights, providing safe and inclusive workplaces, and promoting a sustainable future.

Sincerely,

Yingli Energy Development Co., Ltd

