Scented Candles

Life's different experiences can be inspiring, wherever or whatever they are - a walk in the park, a memory of our youth, delicious food, holidays, etc. Inspiration or memories often occur when we least expect them.

At Spaas a specific search has been made to track down the fragrances that recall such memories. In doing so we have created a range of fruity and floral fragrances, with additional wood and natural aromas. The result is an assortment of 11 aromas, available across a variety of Spaas products.
