A Celtic Blessing

May your day be filled with blessings

Like the sun that lights the sky,

And may you always have the courage

To spread your wings and fly!

The church at A'Chleit is the main centre of worship in the Parish of Killean and Kilchenzie. It was built in the 1790s to replace the ancient church at Killean which had fallen into disrepair. It is said that the minister of the time, a certain Robert Thomson, had a dream in which an angel warned him that the roof was about to fall in!

As a result he held the next Sunday service outside, and verily and forsooth, the roof did fall in!

The present church of Killean and Kilchenzie has a service each Sunday morning at 11.30am, and a warm invitation is extended to all.

The church stands on one of the oldest promontories of rock in Scotland at A'Chleit near Muasdale in West Kintyre. The Atlantic Ocean meets the beach behind the church, and the islands of Jura, Islay, Gigha and Cara complete the scene for one of the most beautiful situations in Scotland.
