Call for Proposals (CfP) to the Winter Symposiums 2017

NSU Study Program is launching the calls (CfP) for the winter symposiums 2017 from its eight study circles. You can view the various CfP here:

<http://nordic.university/study-circles/>

To participate in a winter symposium, please notify the respective coordinators of your interest by email. NSU will subsidize your participation at a winter symposium, though a small participation fee may also be required.

Some information on general dates for the winter symposiums can be found here:

Each study circle compiles a preliminary program that will be posted on the NSU website in December of this year.

Call for new study circle proposals for 2018-2020

The NSU welcome proposals for new study circles for the period 2018-2020: <http://nordic.university/5-2/1262-2/>. For more information about how to write a proposal see:

<http://support.nsuweb.org/proposals-for-new-study-circles/>

The deadline for submitting a proposal is 1st December 2016.

The proposals will be subject to a peer-review, which the applicants will receive by approx. 1st March 2017. The final deadline for submitting a revised version of the application proposal is 1st May 2017.

NSU invites you to take this opportunity to propose enquiries that nurture your cross-disciplinary interests.

Summer session 2017

NSU will hold their summer session 2017 on the coast of Latvia approx. 29th July – 5th August 2017. Please, note the dates. More information regarding the summer session will be found in upcoming newsletters.

Since 1950, the Nordic Summer University (NSU) actively supports the cultivation of new ideas and growing research networks in the Nordic countries. As an independent, non-profit academic institution, NSU fosters the development of new research areas and emerging researchers in the Nordic and Baltic countries. Committed to egalitarian and interdisciplinary modes of learning, the NSU is open for senior scholars, doctoral and master students, as well as artists and professionals with relevant backgrounds. NSU is a non-profit organization, funded by Nordic Council of Ministers / Nordic Council (www.norden.org).

Please forward to anyone who may be interested.
