News from the Nordic Summer University (NSU): upcoming events in 2017

Apologies for any cross posting

The NSU website <https://nordic.university/> currently features:

- Winter Program 2017
- Summer Session 2017 Latvia location and new dates
- Call for proposals for Ad-hoc symposium and events
- Call for applications to publish with NSU Press

Winter Program 2017

The NSU are now presenting the preliminary program for the Winter 2017, which includes eight different symposia and three Ad-hoc seminars. Here you can see an overview of them: <http://nordic.university/conferences/> and here: <http://nordic.university/study-circles/>.

To participate in any of our Winter Symposium, please notify the respective study circle coordinators via their email.

Remember that NSU has a scholarship program that can offer limited support for participants, see this.

Summer Session 2017

The NSU Summer Session 2017 will be in on the Baltic shore of Saulkrasti in Latvia from Wednesday 26th of July to Wednesday 2nd of August. Set aside the dates!

More detailed information about the summer session will be announced in upcoming newsletters in early 2017.

Propose an Ad-hoc seminar

Make a proposal to hold an Ad-hoc seminar in the Nordic and Baltic regions. Application deadline is Feb. 1, 2017. Details on applying can be found here: <http://nordic.university/conferences/ad-hoc-symposia/>.

Publish with NSU Press

Anyone who has participated in the Nordic Summer University is eligible to submit a book proposal to NSU Press. The publications are generally connected to the activities of the NSU study circles. The deadline to submit a book proposal to NSU Press is Feb.1, 2017. Find more details regarding application here.

The NSU wishes all readers of the newsletter a wonderful Holiday Season and a Happy New Year!

Since 1950, the Nordic Summer University (NSU) actively supports the cultivation of new ideas and growing research networks in the Nordic countries. As an independent, non-profit academic institution, NSU fosters the development of new research areas and emerging researchers in the Nordic and Baltic countries. Committed to egalitarian and interdisciplinary modes of learning, the NSU is open for senior scholars, doctoral and master students, as well as artists and professionals with relevant backgrounds. NSU is a non-profit organization, funded by Nordic Council of Ministers / Nordic Council (www.norden.org).

Please forward to anyone who may be interested.
