

Nordic Summer University Newsletter 2023/3

Nordic Networks for Interdisciplinary Study and Research

Dear all,

We are looking forward to a new year in activities at NSU, and the year already looks amazing. During the upcoming months, we will meet in Vilnius, Umeå, Stockholm, Gothenburg, Reykjavik, Helsinki, and in Odense in Denmark, only to mention a few places in the Nordic-Baltic community where NSU will make its presence felt. The next activity to come up is the winter session on Political Myths and Critique in the Age of Post Truth, Stockholm University, November 30th – December 2nd. Come join us if you are nearby!

Since the summer session, NSU has gotten on a new circle on academic freedom. This circle was accepted following the call for a one-year circle which we issued during the summer session. The topic is timely and fits well with the tradition of NSU, and from the board's side, we are happy that the new group brings together both new and old participants.

The program for this year promises a continuation of what we have always aspired to do: significant experimental and practice-based research innovations. For this, we thank our members, who are a crucial part for all NSU operations! NSU is what we make of it, and it is only based on your ideas, activities and engagement that NSU continues to maintain democratic principles and a specific kind of curious openness in academia. If you have been a part of NSU previously, come join us again! If you are new, we would love to hear about your ideas!

For those of you who would like to contribute to NSU in a more general way there will be a funding meeting on Sunday November 19, 09-00-11.00.
