

Today's refugees and migrants as the Holy Family

A man went into a hotel and asked the clerk for a room. The clerk said, "Sorry, Sir, we're all full. We just don't have any more rooms." The man said, "Well, let me ask you a question. If the President of the United States were to come in tonight and ask for a room, would you have one for him?" The clerk said, "Why, yes, we would." The man said, "Well, he's not coming, so I'll take that room."

As we prepare for Christmas our head is preoccupied with different things to do. We rush to church in time for mass and when we see the church is packed with people, we narrate the story about a baby born poor in a manger because there was no room in the inn.

The inn was crowded and it had no place for baby Jesus. Perhaps the inn was too busy helping people that they might have a good stay.

IS THE CHURCH NOT LIKE THE INN?

We are so busy with Christmas preparations because we run our show and talk about the Christmas story. Too busy about how to decorate the church to make it attractive, busy about how the music will be for a great Christmas service etc.

BUT IS JESUS THERE?

WHY ARE WE LIKE THE INN?

Have a meaningful CHRISTMAS

Brad Rozairo OMI