Onyx London Clinic - Data Protection Consent Form

Background

Onyx London Clinic uses your personal data for a number of different reasons. Personal data is any information that identifies you or, in some cases, information that is about you such as an opinion. It includes your name, email address, postal address, job role, photographs, CCTV and more sensitive types of information such as medical and health records, your care plan, information about your religious beliefs, origin and race, your sexual orientation and your political views.

We comply with the law in place in the UK around data protection when we use your personal data, which is known as "GDPR" (short for the General Data Protection Regulation). It allows us to use your personal data for a number of reasons without checking with you that it is ok for us to do so. For example, where we can show that we have legitimate reasons to use your personal data or where we need to use your personal data to provide you with the services you have requested from us, or to meet a legal obligation placed on us.

However, in some situations, we need you to confirm that you are happy for us to use your personal data.

Why we need your consent

We need your consent for us to carry out the following activities with your personal data:

- To provide you with services
- For communication with you
- For quality assurance purpose
- To make disclosures as required by regulatory bodies and law including safeguarding issues
- Where you have consented to insurance companies
- Where you request it, to provide it to third party such as laboratories and health care practitioners
- To process your payment for products and services
- Internal audits and service analysis

What happens next?

If you are unsure about why we are processing your personal data for the reasons set out above, or what we are doing with it, please ask your who would be happy to provide more information. Please do not sign this form until you are happy that you understand its content.

If you give Onyx London Clinic consent to use your personal data in the ways explained above, you can ask Onyx London Clinic to stop using your personal data in this way at any time by speaking to Dr Humam Aboud or by emailing us at contact@onyxlondonclinic.co.uk
