PASTOR & MUMMY O

WHO WE ARE

Omawumi Michael Efueye is a poet, author, motivational speaker and a pastor. Fondly known as Pastor O, he has the natural compassion, calling and anointing of a father. His utter dislike of ignorance and error coupled with his inquisitive, agile mind underscores his uncompromising addiction to teaching the word of God. His undying passion is that God's people should behold God's glory through the undiluted ministry of His word and that as they do, they in turn become transformed to that same image. Integrity and humility are the cornerstones of his life and work,

Pastor O is a man who has raised and nourished an entire generation of leaders through his unique expression of Christ's selfless love. Over the past couple of decades, he has inspired and encouraged many to press forward and consciously lay hold of their destinies and attain their full potential. To quote him, "I will not leave you alone until I see you become all that you can be in Christ". He has been married to his wife, Carol (aka Mummy O) for over twenty-five years and they are blessed with two children.
