"Blue Room" Teater Viirus Helsingfors 2006

Finland

- This one had singers Jenni Storbacka and Markus Nykänen performing songs in between the different scenes. Blue room is of course David Hares play. But it is a take on Arthur Schnitzlers Der Reigen. Of which Stanley Kubricks Eyes Wide Shut is also a version of. I used a selection of rock classics (Cream, Bowie, Joni Mitchell, Velvet Underground etc.) which I translated and arranged so they were just about unrecognizable, *but sympathetic to the sound world which was desolate and futuristic.

Electrinica and classical instruments.*

"Herr Arnes penningar" (Sir Arnes Treasure)Kungliga dramatiska teatern 2004

Sweden

- Herr Arnes penningar was Dramatens (The Royal Dramatic Theatre) christmas premiere of 2004. Based of course upon Selma Lagerlöfs famous novel. The book itself was based upon the legend of the daughters of sir Töre from the middle ages. The legend is the same that was used for Ingmar Bergmans Jungfrukällan. It´s a ghost story with a strong timeless fairytale touch.

"Den långa, långa resan"

Riksteatern/Upsala stadsteater 2003

Sweden

- This is from a production by Riksteatern in Sweden directed by Birgitta Englin. It´s a childrens play based upon the book of the same name by Ilon Wikland, famous for being Astrid Lindgrens illustrator of choice. It was an international cast consisting of actors and staff from all the northern and the baltic countries. As the dialog was kept to a minium due to the fact that it was a touring production with performances in all the nordic and baltic countries, as well as guest performances in Russia, South Korea etc. Therefore the music played an intergral part in the narrative.
