Red and White Wines from Greece

Hatzimichalis Alfega Lefkos

£32.90

Dry white wine, bright, light-golden colour with green highlights. The refreshing and pleasing flavor profile is characterized by elegant fragrance intensity, mainly white and green fruits (green apple, pear) which are highlighted by light tropical notes. On the palate it is creamy, round with pronounced acidity which gives freshness and highlights the vibrant, fruity flavors. Long aftertaste.

Hatzimichalis Alfega Erythros

£36.50

Dry red wine, deep purple color. Complex, attractive aromas of plums and blackcurrants dominate on an elegant oaky background. Aromas of juicy red fruits and spice dominate in the mouth. Harmonious and balanced with lively tannins and long fruity finish.

Hatzimichalis Dionysus' Chora White

£28.90

Dry white wine. Expressive nose with vibrant, fresh fruit aromas. Notes of pear, green apple and citrus distinctive feature in the background of freshly chamomile and small white flowers. A refreshing, delightful wine, with elegant aromas of fruit, 'crunchy' acidity and good length.

Hatzimichalis Le Rouge

£30.90

Medium dry red wine from the wine region of Attica in Greece, recommended to have alongside dishes which incorporate beef, lamb, spicy food, poultry, and cheese.

Barola (Superior Wine)
