MODDA

Felix Rosenlund

Modda is Swedish slang for Modify, to change an artifact to allow for new ways of using it.

Modda is an open source, modular and mobile, outdoor kitchen. My intention with Modda is to let people co-create and improve on the basic design in order to find new solutions and ways to use it.

The project stems from my background in the Swedish Scout association and my passion for cooking. I believe that food cooked and eaten outdoors taste better and that we spend too much time indoors. Modda is a way of utilizing outdoor cooking for the urban dweller.
