

Supporting recovery
Reducing harm
Rebuilding lives

Addictions: awareness training

Do you come across people with addiction issues at work?
Would you like to find out more about how to support them?

SIAS offers tailor-made free training packages, at basic and intermediate levels, throughout the year:

Alcohol awareness

Drugs awareness

Gambling awareness

Perhaps you work in the health and social care sector, education, youth services or the criminal justice system? Or you work in an industry or company where substance misuse is rife?

Whatever the circumstances, if you are based in Solihull and need to understand more about addiction and substance misuse, please contact us.

If you are in need of support or guidance for yourself or another, please call us on:

0121 301 4141

SIAS is a partnership between Birmingham and Solihull Mental Health NHS Foundation Trust, Welcome, Aquarius, Changes UK and Urban Heard and is commissioned by Solihull Council.

We work closely together to offer easy access to appropriate support and treatment for individuals whose drug or alcohol use, or gambling has become problematic. We also offer support to their families and friends.
