Simply Sharing & project RINPOCHE because...

Simply Sharing is an association with the sole purpose to share the Dharma freely available to all through teaching material based on the simple dissemination derived from Lakha Lama's long life in Denmark, his many cross-cultural activities in Scandinavia, and his work in bringing together the Nordic ways with the Tibetan philosophy.

Project RINPOCHE

www.lakhalama.org

Many feel closely connected to Lakha Lama. It can be of immense joy and great benefit to many to have access to the Dharma and the words that he has shared so generously throughout his life.

All of which has been documented, primarily in audio and video recordings, are held privately by numerous individuals in various geographic locations. Very little detail regarding Lakha Lama's discussions around the Dharma are commonly shared on the internet. Thus, public access to this valuable material to date has been very difficult.

Based on this citation of poor public access, Simply Sharing has initiated an extensive project that will make this material available on lakhalama.org to be launched by the end of 2021.

Communication & Use

What makes Lakha Lama's communication of the Dharma unique is the simplicity in which he presents the philosophy, especially the real time practice. Furthermore, Lakha Lama's ability to communicate the essence of universal principles is characterized by a timeless actuality and everyday relevance in a contemporary, and Nordic context no less.

The website lakhalama.org offers materials that can be used by individuals for self-study. In addition, the website and its materials can be utilized by institutions, associations, interest groups and other organizations that wish to obtain a calmer mind through spiritual and personal development, following the Dharma.

In Denmark alone, the number of Dharma practitioners is estimated to be roughly 18.000. In Sweden, the Dharma practitioners is estimated to be as high as 45.000.

The offered materials are as follows:

Podcasts from talks, teachings and interviews combined with associated transcriptions.

Videos of talks and teachings combined with TV-broadcasts, and documentaries.

A library of books, articles and press publications, cross-referenced with subsidizing literature.

A Dharma Wiki in order to reference a more detailed explanation of special words and unique concepts found in the accessible information.

The life story and personal portrayal of Lakha Lama combined with a historical photo gallery.

Simply Sharing together...

The board of the association and several key persons in the project work voluntarily. But paid professional help is needed to build the website and share this precious material.

That is why we need YOU as a sponsor and/or as a supporting member.

All contributions are received with great gratitude and go unappreciated to the development and operation of lakhalama.org.

Economy and quality are linked

We place great emphasis on safety, quality, simplicity, functionality and expression. That is why we use solutions that go beyond generally available standard solutions. In addition, there is extensive work on the collection, digitization, categorization and editing of the amounts of materials that has been produced in the wake of Lakha Lama's many activities throughout the years.

We have an expectation that the website can be developed for an amount of less than 66,000 EUR, where media editing and web development alone accounts for more than 90%. The annual operation and maintenance is estimated at EUR 6,030, where the web part (for security reasons) as well as cloud solutions and publications account for almost 90% of the costs, and the rest goes to the association's operation. Project RINPOCHE in sight...

Once the required financial support has been raised, we ask our professional service vendors to proceed, creating the container and the media content. The key persons behind the visual layout, web design and media content editing have already and free of charge created the foundation for building the website, in order for you to get an idea of what you are supporting.

If you follow this link, you will reach a simulated demo version of lakhalama.org where you can get a sense of layout, main themes, navigation, structure and content.

Otherwise, you can form an impression from the examples shown of what we have prepared on the drawing board.

Project RINPOCHE and the Dharma...

Fundamentally, Dharma is addressing the wish of every single human being to live a life in peace, joy and harmony. Furthermore, Dharma is suggesting different methods to realize these human aspects of living.

The key is to develop a calmer mind and an inner state of being, which nourishes and benefits one's relations to one's self as well as one's relations to others and one's surroundings.

In that, Dharma includes all beings, denominations, people, cultures, science and other factions. It invites everyone to experience a closer examination of the nature of Dharma and one's own convictions, and habits.

Working with the problems experienced in life and the quality of one's own existence, combined with other individual's experiences can be somewhat of a challenge. Such complexity can often keep many individuals from deeply exploring these life experiences, leading to an increased unbalance.

Lakha Lama

Lakha Lama, was born by the name of Thupten Dorjee in Tibet in 1942. By the age of 5, Lakha Lama was recognized as the spiritual leader of roughly 100.000 people in Eastern Tibet. In 1959 he fled Tibet and immigrated to India. In 1976, Lakha Lama arrived in Denmark, where he settled down, and started a family.

As a refuge, Lakha Lama had the experience of losing everything. In practice, he has used the Buddhist philosophy and knowledge of the human mind and its deeply rooted resources. Through such practice, he has been able to share this wisdom, not only based on insights from his philosophical studies, but from his personal life experiences and realization.

Lakha Lama is the founder and former chairman of Tibet Charity, and he is the principal spiritual leader emeritus of Phendeling and Ösal Ling - two Tibetan Buddhist Centers in Copenhagen and Aarhus, respectively.

His close relation to H.H. Dalai Lama has resulted in more visits by His Holiness in Denmark. The desirable teachings and many talks of Lakha Lama is the source of books, articles, interviews, TV-broadcasts, documentaries, audio and video recordings.

Lakha Lama has several thousand followers within Scandinavia and the rest of the world. As one of his Swedish followers has said, quote: "Lakha Lama is to Scandinavia and many Tibetans what H.H. Dalai Lama is to the world".
