A Seasonal Medley

Bring two poems to share with the group, one you have written and the other one by a poet you admire. It would be interesting to hear a few sentences about the poet you have chosen and why you like that particular poem. The poems could be seasonal, personal, amusing or just one you keep coming back to again and again.

We shall have the usual 'books and bling' table, followed by mince pies and other good things to eat!

annual membership £5 per session; or occasional attendance @ £7.50 per session.*
