CHIEF DABENI

We would like to introduce you to Chief Dabeni, who serves on the SODA Board as Our “Video Producer”. Chief was born March 7, 2005 in American Fork, Utah. He has a younger sister, Cherish who is also on the Board and a younger brother Ezra Reamer.

His Mother is Porteah Purcell who is SODA’s Treasurer and Financial Manager. When Chief was two years old, they moved to Bellevue, Washington: later they spent four Years in Japan where he attended an English-speaking school on a Navy Base. He began High school in Sammamish, and the family now lives in their own home in Tacoma, Washington and Chief will be starting his Senior year at Franklin-Pierce High School in Tacoma. Chief enjoys technology and film, hoping eventually to attend film School and work in the field. He has struggled with a diagnosis of ADHD, but doing well Now with no medication. Besides attending school, Chief currently is working at McDonalds’s part time. Chief likes being a part of SODA and he enjoys making monthly Videos of the SODA News that he shares on Facebook. Thank you Chief for being an important part of SODA!
