DISCOVER PALERMO

The old towncentre of Palermo

Enjoy a private guided tour along the main streets of Palermo by Fiat 500. We can start from Piazza Politeama (Politeama Square) but also change the meeting point according to your personal requests.

We stop in Piazza G. Verdi where the largest theatre of Europe stands, the Theatre Massimo. Then we proceed to the Norman Palace and the Palatine Chapel. The tour will continue to the Zisa, a 12th century palace constructed towards the end of the Norman reign.

Tour up Monte Pellegrino

Enjoy a chauffeured tour from the Piazza G. Verdi through the ancient port of Palermo called the Cala, now restored and full of fisherboats and yachts. We will pass by the Foro Italico, seafront of city.

There will also be pit stops along the way to take photos. Then proceeding to the Monte Pellegrino, the high mountain where the sanctuary of Saint Rosalia stands, also called La Santuzza or "The Little Saint", the patron saint of Palermo.

You can visit the sanctuary, located inside a cave and contains the bones of Santa Rosalia and many votive offerings of the faithful devotees of the saint, whose bones, according to tradition, had been found on the mountain by a hunter in 1624 while the plague scourged the city.

According to tradition, thanks to the discovery, the plague was defeated and the Senate of Palermo dedicated the shrine.

DISCOVERING MONDELLO

Starting from the city centre to discover Mondello. Enjoy the tour by Fiat 500 along the Parco della Favorita, which represents the biggest green area of Palermo.

It is located at the foot of Monte Pellegrino, in the north-western part of the city. You'll explore the long sandy bay of Mondello and see the ancient, beautiful bathing establishment from 1912 in Art Nouveau style. You will also visit the little fishermen's village.

There will also be pit stops along the way to take photos and to taste fresh fish in one of the best typical trattoria.

TOUR OF THE COAST

Departure from Palermo to Bagheria to visit Villa Palagonia, a patrician villa and one of the earliest examples of Sicilian Baroque.

Its popularity comes mainly from the statues of monsters with human faces that decorate its garden and its wall, and earned it the nickname of The Villa of Monsters (Villa dei Mostri).

The next stop will be Solunto, an ancient city situated on the north coast.

You will visit the Antiquarium of Solunto, a museum located inside the archaeological site of Solunto.

Then you can enjoy diving or an excursion on boat following a good aperitif in a sea view terrace.
