- We will have the unique chance to be hosted in a private house, in order to admire an icon of Sicilian craft, the "Carretti Siciliani", done by one of the last "master of axe".
- At "Gli Aromi", we'll have a sensorial experience, we'll use our smell, taste and touch more than our sight, led by the volcanic owners, the Russino family, and at the end we'll attend a cooking class and will eat in one of the greenhouses.
