#6 How can the organization support good leadership behaviors?

- specify what the aim of the training is
 - ↳ what kind of leadership do we want to have in this org
 - ↳ "good" leadership is always related to the aim/goals of the org.
- provide managers with time to reflect on their leadership + can receive support → in meetings also talk about leadership + learn from each other
- more admin support so leads/managers can use time for leadership
- being aware that leadership needs to be "perceived" by employees
 - ↳ it is not necessarily the perception of managers that counts but employee perception counts
- get help in how leadership is measured / operationalized in the organization
- take longterm perspective
- weak feedback systems more directly related to leadership
- alignment of performance goals + HR
- org needs "beställarkompetens"
- analysis about what kind of leadership we want to reach → decide based on that which antecedents + consequences are needed
- assign a "chief behav. officer" → independent of HR
