

Parish of Tankersley's

Platinum Jubilee Celebrations

2nd – 5th June 2022

Rationale

- Our village has a very long and proud history of coming together to support national events. In living memory these have been Coronations, Jubilees, Significant Royal Birthdays, Weddings, Centenary and Bi-Centenary events.
- Events and Celebrations create a sense of belonging and build the feeling of togetherness and community. The Platinum Jubilee is an unprecedented anniversary, that will provide an opportunity for communities and people throughout the United Kingdom to come together to celebrate this historic milestone.
- The four days of celebrations will include public events and community activities, as well as national moments of reflection on The Queen's 70 years of service.

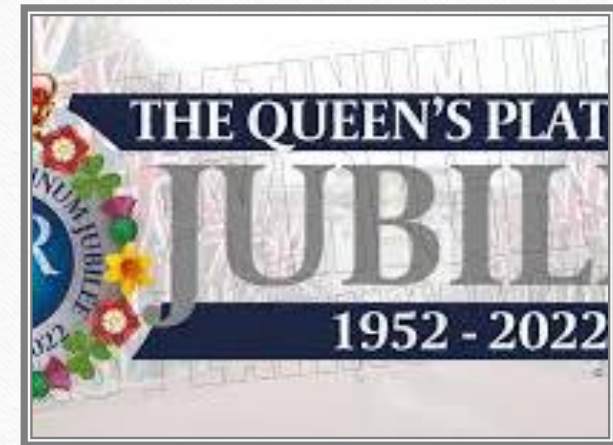

Past Events

- Past Events prove that this sense of belonging and togetherness leave lasting impressions on people.
- Celebration Bonfire for the coronation of George the V 22nd June 1911, held in Tankersley Park (Now Tankersley Golf Course with Ladies Folly in the background)
- 1977 Silver Jubilee, Maypole Dancing held at the old Rectory
- Centenary Event for the end of the 1st World War

Joint Working

- To make all this happen the following organizations and interested parties have come together.
- Tankersley Parish Council
- Tankersley Hub & Community Association
- Tankersley St Peter's School
- Tankersley St Peters Church & Pilley Methodists
- Interested Members of the Public

Lasting Memorials

- Seven Tree's Trail as part of the Queen's Green Canopy – 7 tree's planted around the parish to create a Platinum Jubilee Walk and 1 special tree.
Details to be covered in the Parish Council's Report to you.
- Jubilee Bench Competition – run by the support of St Peter's School for 2 new benches.

Advertising of the Events

- The following leaflets will be dropping through people's letter boxes shortly directing them to Tankersley Hub Facebook page for up-to-date information of each event.

SANDRINGHAM HOUSE

5th February, 2022.

Tomorrow, 6th February, marks the 70th anniversary of my Accession in 1952. It is a day that, even after 70 years, I still remember as much for the death of my father, King George VI, as for the start of my reign.

As we mark this anniversary, it gives me pleasure to renew to you the pledge I gave in 1947 that my life will always be devoted to your service.

As I look ahead with a sense of hope and optimism to the year of my Platinum Jubilee, I am reminded of how much we can be thankful for. These last seven decades have seen extraordinary progress socially, technologically and culturally that have benefitted us all; and I am confident that the future will offer similar opportunities to us and especially to the younger generations in the United Kingdom and throughout the Commonwealth.

I am fortunate to have had the steadfast and loving support of my family. I was blessed that in Prince Philip I had a partner willing to carry out the role of consort and unselfishly make the sacrifices that go with it. It is a role I saw my own mother perform during my father's reign.

This anniversary also affords me a time to reflect on the goodwill shown to me by people of all nationalities, faiths and ages in this country and around the world over these years. I would like to express my thanks to you all for your support. I remain eternally grateful for, and humbled by, the loyalty and affection that you continue to give me. And when, in the fullness of time, my son Charles becomes King, I know you will give him and his wife Camilla the same support that you have given me; and it is my sincere wish that, when that time comes, Camilla will be known as Queen Consort as she continues her own loyal service.

And so as I look forward to continuing to serve you with all my heart, I hope this Jubilee will bring together families and friends, neighbours and communities – after some difficult times for so many of us – in order to enjoy the celebrations and to reflect on the positive developments in our day-to-day lives that have so happily coincided with my reign.

A special proclamation is to be made by Town Criers & distinguished Dignitaries around the world to celebrate the Queen's Platinum Jubilee

Thursday 2nd June Proclamation Event at Jubilee Park Tankersley

13.50

The National Anthem will sound the start of our villages planned events before the Proclamation is read by either the Lord / Deputy Lieutenant of South Yorkshire. The event will also see the Blessing and Inauguration of the Jubilee Bench. There will also be an opportunity to do a short version of the Jubilee 7 Trees Trail. Afterwards refreshments will be served in the school

Thursday 2nd June

The event will be supported by Music and Entertainment and Licenced Bar.

The UK has a long tradition of celebrating Royal events with the lighting of beacons. The Parish Armada Beacon in Pilley Pocket Park will be lit in conjunction with Over 1,500 beacons throughout the United Kingdom, Channel Islands, Isle of Man and UK Overseas Territories.

For the first time, beacons will also be lit in each of the capital cities of the Commonwealth countries.

The Principal beacon will be lit in a special ceremony at Buckingham Palace.

Friday 3rd of June: National service of Thanksgiving will be held in St Pauls Cathedral London

Tankersley St Peters will be open for private reflection and will also host an Exhibition of the last 70 years.

Anyone able to donate items to reflect the changes during these times will be greatly received
