Your older brother
Mohammad lives in Hamburg. He has promised to help you find a good school.

You want to go to Stockholm. Your favourite uncle Hassan lives there. Sweden is far from war and you like it when it is cold.

You hope to go to Vienna to meet your cousin, Amir. you have seen pictures of giant palaces and would love to live in such a beautiful place.

You want to go to Gothenburg to reunite with your sister, Maria.
She's a nurse there and you hope one day to be one too.

You want to travel to Marseille to live with your cousin, Sophie.
Sophie lives near the beautiful beaches
and always tells you about the calming waves. What a dream!

You want to travel to London to live with your brother, Jamal. In London, you dream of a life where you can feel safe and just be a regular kid again.

You wish to go to Paris to live with your uncle, Saleh. He lives near the beautiful Seine River and has promised to take you to the top of the Eiffel tower when you arrive.

You want to journey to Berlin to live with your cousin, Heidi. She used to tell you stories about the Tiergarten park when she visited you. You now hope to live close to the park.

You want to travel to Hamburg to join your aunt, Olga. She lives on a boat on the Elbe river and has a room ready for when you arrive. You cannot wait to hug her again.

You hope for a life in Stockholm with your cousin Ali. He is a professional football player and you would love to be one too.

You hope to go to Vienna to meet your cousin, Amir. You have seen pictures of giant palaces and would love to live in such a beautiful place.

You're want to travel to Gothenburg to join your uncle, Boris. He is a fisherman and has promised to take you out into the big sea. You have dreamt of this for a long time.

You're excited to go to Marseille to join your cousin, Ariel. She is a teacher and talks about how great her school is. You're eager to attend school again and learn new things every day, far from the conflicts of your homeland.

You're excited to go to London to live with your uncle, Ahmed. He said you could stay with him in his cosy apartment for as long as you like.

You want to travel to Paris to join your favourite aunt, Mira and her family. They have room for you and will welcome you with open arms when you get there.

You're eager to travel to Berlin to join your uncle, Ibrahim. He's found work in the city and will help you get one too.

You're planning to head to Hamburg to be with your older cousin, Nadia. She's a famous architect there. You wish to study engineering and construct big buildings drawn by her.

Your much older sister Jasmin lives in Stockholm. She has promised you that you can stay at her house as long as you like.

You plan to go to Vienna to stay with your older sister, Fatima. She knows some people who might have a job for you.

You're planning to head to Gothenburg to be with your aunt, Aisha. You don't know her very well but she is family.

You're hoping to travel to Marseille to be with your brother, Amer. Amer plays handball at a local club. You dream of playing handball together, far from the stress you have experienced these past few years.

You plan to move to London to be with your cousin, Sara. In London, you can't wait to return to school and learn English.

You're planning to head to Paris to be with your brother, Fadi. He's attending a famous school and always tells you about his classes. In Paris, you're looking forward to going to school, gaining an education, and maybe becoming a teacher one day.

You're planning to get to Berlin. You saw a movie once about Berlin and it was one of the most beautiful cities you have ever seen in a film.

You're eager to go to Hamburg to live near your dear friend, Iris. She has promised you can stay with her and her family for as long as you need. She might even be able to get you a job as a gardener's assistant.

You hope to move to Stockholm to help your grandma, who lives there alone. You have not seen her in years and miss her so much.

You're eager to travel to Vienna to join your friend, Ali. He's going to school and has promised to help you join him at school. In Vienna, you can't wait to go to school again and learn new things, far from the conflicts back home.

Your friend, Alexei lives in Gothenburg with his family. You have chatted about how great the city is so you want to live there yourself.

Your favourite friend Sahar fled to Marseille with his family a year ago. He sends pictures of the sea and families strolling along its streets all the time. It looks like the most beautiful place on earth.

Your friend Yusuf is in London. He's plays in a local football team and said you could join them. In London, you hope to play football, meet new friends, and live a peaceful life.

You want to go to Paris to be near your cousin, Nawal. She has married a Frenchman and they have promised to take care of you and anyone from your family that travels with you. You cannot wait to see them.

You aim to get to Berlin to be close to your cousin, Lukas and his mother Iris. They live in a calm neighbourhood where kids can play freely. In Berlin, you dream of playing in the park, and maybe even joining a football club.

You're determined to move to Hamburg to be close to your uncle, Bilal. You hope Hamburg will be your new home far from war and terror.

Your dream is to settle in Stockholm and nothing shall stop you. You want to be as far away from the war you have left behind.

You want to go to Vienna to be with your aunt, Layla. She has a comfortable apartment and has promised to take care of you. In Vienna, you hope to find a safe place, where you can relax and be a normal teenager and far from war.

You want to end up in Gothenburg to be close to your aunt, Fatima. She is a chef at a popular local restaurant, and she has promised you can help her out and make money there.

Your favourite football player Zidane is from Marseille. You want to live in the city where he came from and maybe one day be a professional footballer like him.

You're ready to relocate to London to stay with your grandma, Amina. She has promised to take care of you and help you find your family. You miss them all so much.

Your old Aunt Isabell lives in Paris where she sells flowers. That sounds like a peaceful and beautiful life. You cannot wait to join her in Paris!

You really want to move to Berlin to be with your aunt, Haty. She's part of a organisation that helps new refugees find a home and a job. Maybe she can help you too?
