

Romans 12 Prayer of Surrender

Father,

I surrender to you completely and unreservedly, in every area of my life, now and at this moment.

I yield everything to you, my body, my soul, and my spirit, my family, my job, my finances, my weakness, my strengths, my past, my present, my future, everything I am for all eternity. I come to you Lord, to thank you for my new heart and new spirit, which you gave me, when you caused me to be born again. I ask Lord, for a Godly sorrow, leading to repentance for all the things I've done to grieve you, all my sins, my iniquities, my transgressions, debts and debtors, all the sins, iniquities, transgressions, debts and debtors of my ancestors, back as far as they go, through all generations even back to Adam and Eve.

Thank you Jesus, that I may be healed of my coldness of heart and my lack of trust. I thank you, Lord Jesus, for empowering me to turn around, to go the other way, to go the way that pleases you, when you baptized me with the Holy Spirit and fire. You are so welcome, Holy Spirit, and I thank you for coming into my life, right now. I praise you and love you, Holy Spirit. Holy Spirit, I ask you to help me receive the things promised to me from, the Father, thru Jesus Christ. Help me to come into complete fellowship and communion, with you, Jesus and the Father.

Holy Spirit, make me fully aware of your presence and enable me to hear your voice. You will bring to my remembrance all the words of Jesus, and I promise to keep them in the midst of my heart.

Heavenly Father, I ask you in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, to anoint me with your Spirit, to touch those around me and those you bring across my path. Help me, Holy Spirit, to never neglect our fellowship, In Jesus' Name.

Only you Holy Spirit, can lead me into all truth and show me things to come. Only you hath the Father given through our Lord Jesus Christ, to teach us all things.

Forever and forever,
Amen and Amen.
