

Internationale Jiu Jitsu Championships

Otterbach / GERMANY
from 04th to 07th October 2024

Location

The Region: Palatinate

The Palatinate is located in southwestern Germany. The region is known for its warm hospitality, good wines, forests and savory specialties. Nature lovers especially enjoy hiking trips and cycling holidays. The Palatinate Forest is part of the Palatinate Forest-North Vosges Biosphere Reserve and covers one third of the region. Hence, the atmosphere is particularly beautiful in autumn when the leaves turn bright and colorful. Onion tart, new wine (federweisser) and chestnuts are typical culinary delights of the season. The Palatinate offers both convivial wine festivals and relaxing wellness holidays. Moreover, castles, fortresses and mine sites attract many visitors. (www.pfalz.de)

Hotel location: Kaiserslautern (K-Town)

The city lies within the natural reserve and offers attractive leisure opportunities, sports possibilities and shopping facilities. Therefore, the area does not only attract hikers or soccer fans. The area offers diverse excursion destinations, museums, restaurants and a lively city centre. The Japanese Garden is one of the largest of its kind in Europe and is hence a special attraction. Even during Emperor Frederick Barbarossa's reign the city flourished; the remains of the imperial palace can be still visited today. K-Town and its surrounding host 45,000 Americans who work on the Ramstein Air Base. K-Town is an open-minded, welcoming city.

Competition site: Otterbach

The town Otterbach is situated 6 kilometres north of K-Town. In 1579 the Walloons, who were banished from Belgium, settled here and have left their marks. Furthermore, the town is known for its former Cistercian monastery. The abbey church, which was built in 1168, is an important landmark of the town and is the second largest church in Palatinate after the Speyer Cathedral. It is used jointly by Protestants and Catholic Christians.
