FADE IN:

EXT. ABANDONED GREENHOUSE - DAY

We see an old, dilapidated greenhouse in the middle of a field. We hear a car approaching.

CUT TO:

INT. ABANDONED GREENHOUSE - DAY

Two figures are standing next to each other, EMIL and LIZ. They are both staring at the interior of a greenhouse with excited looks on their faces, dressed in lab coats and carrying various pieces of equipment.

The windows of the greenhouse are broken, and the plants are overgrown.

Note: Characters speak in broken English.

EMIL

(excited)

Look Liz! We have found the perfect place to experiment!

LIZ

(Less excited)

Yes, it's perfect. But we'll have to work quickly, this place is a mess.

They set to work, cleaning up the greenhouse and setting up their equipment. As they work, we see their passion for science and their excitement for the experiments they will be conducting.

INT. ABANDONED GREENHOUSE - DAY (LATER)

The greenhouse has been cleaned and fixed. The camera pans around to reveal both scientists working at different stations. They are both focused and determined.

EMIL

(excitedly)

Liz, you must see this! My sample plant has increased its size by 500% in no more than 24 hours!

LIZ

(Not impressed)

That is good news Emil, but we have to make them grow faster.

EMIL

(Slightly disappointed)

I know... DR. ANGELOV will not be happy. We must keep going.

The camera cuts to them working frantically in the greenhouse, experimenting, and making discoveries. They are so focused on their work that don't notice the passage of time.

CUT TO:

INT. ABANDONED GREENHOUSE - NIGHT

The greenhouse is now dark, but their workstations are lit by a large eerie lamp from above their heads. Emil and Liz are still working, but they are now visibly exhausted.

EMIL

(panting)

I cannot believe how much we have accomplished today.

LIZ

(also panting)

I know. But we are not done yet. We must push ourselves harder.

The camera cuts to them continuing to work through the night, fueled by their obsession with their experiments.

CUT TO:

INT. ABANDONED GREENHOUSE - DAY

We see Emil and Liz again, but this time they are slumped over their stations, fast asleep. They are surrounded by a riot of plants, some of which have grown to monstrous proportions.

The camera pulls back to reveal that the greenhouse is now completely overrun by the plants. It is clear that Emil and Liz have lost control of their experiments.

FADE TO BLACK.

THE END.
