SEASON OF SCORE-SCORE

Theme: GOD HAS BEEN PROVOKED TO JEALOUSY
Topic: THE ALMIGHTY IS THE ALL ABLE
Texts: Num.14:1-9; Dan.3:13-29

(Day 20)

We have come to the penultimate day of the 3-weeks journey. We can confidently say "Ebenezer" (Hitherto hath the Lord helped us). It has been a great experience with outstanding testimonies of fresh anointing, uncommon healing and grace.

Today, we wish to announce that the God that has been provoked to jealousy is the all able God. There is no limit to His capability or capacity or access. He is the Creator and does as He likes and none can query or contend with him. He is the all-knowing and ever-present. He created all things for His pleasure both the good and evil (Rev.4:11; Isa.45:7; Pro.16:4; Exo.9:16).

Joshua understood this ability of God and so wasn't moved by the terrible sight of the opposition to possession of the promise, as the other spies were. The Hebrew young men affirmed their unalloyed allegiance to the able God Who has the capacity to deliver from fire; and it was confirmed. The Almighty went ahead to show that He has the capacity to convert a death sentence to a platform of exaltation.

The Almighty is God in all dimension of life and has the ability to use whomsoever/whatsoever to accomplish His counsel. Satan or any of his fallen colleagues can be employed (Job.1,2; 2Chro.18:19-22). He can use despots like Pharaoh of Moses' time or Nebuchadnezzar and normal people that don't know Him- like Cyrus and Nebuchadnezzar (Isa.45:1-4; Jer.25:8-9). He is the Lord of animals and does employ them for His service (Num.22:24-25; 1Kgs17:4-6; Jonah1:17; 2Pet.2:16) natural forces/elements are at His command (Gen.6:17; Josh.10:11)

The Almighty God has a strategy of using negative circumstances to build the integrity and capacity of His people (Deut.8:1-2; Jer.29:11; Rom.5:3; Phil.4:11-13).

The challenges of the present day have been orchestrated to build us and make us know the ability of the Lord through prayer and patience (Heb.6:12).

We shall therefore submit ourselves to the Man of war to assist us by His Spirit to make intercessions (Rom.8:26-27). There is no searching of His understanding, and His ways are past finding out (Jas.1:17).

We shall first worship and praise the Lord Who inhabitest the praises of His people (Ps.22;3) and then proceed to tender our petitions.
