

Challenge opportunity: Open-call

global specialist in horticulture

Background:

Do you have new ideas for the horticultural sector and you are looking for a commercial company to support you? Then be sure to contact us through the Open-call challenge!

The horticultural sector is fast moving with new greenhouses are rapidly starting all over the world. There is a continuous demand for growing more crop per square meter, but also for more biological and environmental friendly ways of production. Moreover, legislation is moving forward and stimulates innovations.

Through the Open-call you can pitch your idea to the innovation specialist of Royal Brinkman. They will support you in their feedback and based on your pitch, provide you with an intensive guidance program. You will be able to use the global network of Royal Brinkman to design, test & demonstrate your ideas. Would you like to know more? Then be sure to contact Maartje for more information.
