

11 b) Find out who did what.

1. The Sheriff took a lot of money.
2. The farmer shouted loudly for help.
(adverb)
3. The Sheriff had an idea. (He took the old woman's clothes.)
4. But Robin Hood and his men caught the Sheriff easily.
(adverb)
5. The Sheriff was very angry.
6. He got on his horse and rode home quickly.
(adverb)
7. Robin Hood gave the old woman some money.
8. The ^{old} farmer took back his money happily.
(adverb)

Tipp! ... and help
Adverbien erklären Verben näher!
 Sie beziehen sich also immer auf ein
 Verb. z.B. he rode quickly
 adverb

TB p 64 / 12

Sätze können variieren (z.B. Satzanfänge)!

The story

Let me tell you what happened yesterday. The Sheriff of Nottingham took a lot of money from an old farmer.

I wanted to get the money back.

The Sheriff of Nottingham took the old woman's clothes.
(an)

Then the old woman told me.

My men and I found the Sheriff in the forest.

He was dressed like a woman.

After that I took the money back and the Sheriff's clothes. The Sheriff rode away without his clothes.

Later I gave back the clothes to the old woman and some money because she helped us.

Finally I gave the money back to the old farmer.

He was really happy. We laughed a lot about the Sheriff. Haha.